14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, ⁸they rent their clothes, and ^βran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, ¹why do ye these things? ^mWe also are men of like ⁵passions with you, and ⁶preach unto you that ye should turn from ⁿthese ⁷vauities ^ounto the living God, ^rwhich made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 ^qWho in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 ^rNevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and ^sgave ^βus rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling ^your hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, ^uand, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city; and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, ^vand [†]had ⁸taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and ^xexhorting them to continue in the faith, and that ^zwe must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ^{9a}ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, ^bfrom whence they had been ^crecommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, ^dthey rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had ^eopened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Great dissension ariseth touching circumcision.

6 The apostles consult about it, 22 and send their determination by letters to the churches.

36 Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the brethren together, fall at strife, and depart asunder.

AND ^acertain men which came down from Judæa taught the brethren, ^{and said}, ^bExcept ye be circumcised, ^cafter the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that ^dPaul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And ^ebeing brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, ^fdeclaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and ^gof the apostles and elders, and ^hthey declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there ⁱrose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, ^kThat it was needful to circumcise them, and to command ^lthem to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, ^mMen and brethren, ye know how that ⁿa good while ago God made choice among ^βus, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

hearts, bare them witness, ¹giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 ^m And put no difference between us and them, ⁿpurifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, ^oto put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But ^p we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had ^qwrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, ^rJames answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 ^β Simeon hath declared how God at the first ²did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 ^tAfter this I will return, and will build again the ³tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, ^βwho doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world ^β.

19 Wherefore ^umy sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles ^{4z}are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain ^vfrom pollutions of idols, and ^zfrom fornication, ^βand from things strangled ^β, ^aand from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, ^bbeing read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed ^βc Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and ^βelders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that ^dcertain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, ^βsaying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law ^β: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, ⁵being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 ^eMen that have ⁶hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by ^fmouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 ^fThat ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and ^gfrom blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the ^{||}consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, ^{7h}exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let ⁱgo in peace from the brethren unto ^βthe apostles.

34 ^βNotwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still ^β.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren 'in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them ^m John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, ⁿ who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, ^o being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of ^β God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, ^p confirming the churches.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Paul having circumcised Timothy, 7 and being called by the Spirit from one country to another, 14 converteth Lydia, 16 casteth out a spirit of divination. 19 For which cause he and Silas are whipped and imprisoned. 26 The prison doors are opened. 31 The jailor is converted, 37 and they are delivered.

THEN came he to ^a Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, ^b named Timothy, ^c the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which ^d was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and ^e took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, ^f that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 And ^g so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now ^h when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were ^β ⁱ forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but ^β the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia ^a came down to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a ⁱ man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go ^k into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that ^β the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to ⁱ Philippi, which is ^{||} the ² chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the [†] sabbath we went out of the ^β city by a river side, where ^γ prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose ^m heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And ⁿ she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to ³ prayer, a certain damsel ^o possessed with ⁴ a spirit ^{||} of divination met us, which brought her masters ^p much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and ^q cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto ^β us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, ^r being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. ^s And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And ^t when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was ⁶gone, ⁷they caught Paul and Silas, and ⁸drew them into the || market-place unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the ⁷magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, ⁸do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, ⁹and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 ⁸ And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately ⁹all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for ⁸a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, ⁶Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, ⁶Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had ⁹brought them into his house, ⁸he set meat before them, and rejoiced ¹⁰, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the ¹¹serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, ⁶being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and ⁷desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, ⁹and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they ¹²comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica, & where some believe, and others persecute him. 10 He is sent to Berea, and preacheth there. 13 Being persecuted at Thessalonica, 15 he cometh to Athens, and disputeth, and preacheth the living God to them unknown, 34 whereby many are converted unto Christ.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, ⁹went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, ⁶that ¹Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this ⁸Jesus, || whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 ⁶And some of them believed, and ²consorted with Paul and ⁴Silas; and of the ⁸devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, ⁷ These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also ;

⁷ Whom Jason hath received : and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, ⁸ saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

⁸ And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

¹¹ These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and ⁱ searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

¹³ But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, ^β and stirred up the people.

¹⁴ ^k And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go ^β as it were to the sea : but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

¹⁶ ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, ^m his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city ⁿ wholly given to idolatry.

¹⁷ Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that ⁶ met with him.

¹⁸ Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this ^o babbler say ? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange ⁱ gods : because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18.

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinth to the Gentiles. 9 The Lord encourageth him in a vision. 12 He is accused before Gallio the deputy, but is dismissed. 18 Afterwards passing from city to city he strengtheneth the disciples. 24 Apollos, being more perfectly instructed by Aquila and Priscilla, 28 preacheth Christ with great efficacy.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named ^a Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, ^b and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 ^c And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and ¹ persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And ^d when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was ² pressed ^β in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus || was Christ.

6 And ^e when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, ^φ he shook his raiment, and said unto them, ^h Your blood be upon your own heads; ⁱ I am clean: ^k from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named ^β Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 ¹ And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then ^m spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 ^{*} For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he [†] continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the ³ deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, ^o If it were a matter of wrong or wicked ⁴ lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, ⁵ look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then ^β all the Greeks took ^p Sos-thenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having ^q shorn his head in ^r Cenchrea: for ⁶ he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, ^β ^{*} I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but ^β I will return again unto you, ^t if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

6 The Holy Ghost is given by Paul's hands. 9 The Jews blaspheme his doctrine, which is confirmed by miracles. 13 The Jewish exorcists 16 are beaten by the devil. 19 Conjuring books are burnt. 24 Demetrius, for love of gain, raiseth an uproar against Paul, 35 which is appeased by the town-clerk.

And it came to pass, that, while ^αApollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the ¹upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, ²Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, ^cWe ³have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, ^αUnto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, ^cJohn verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on ^βChrist^β Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized ¹/ in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had ⁹laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and ^hthey spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 ⁱAnd he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things ^kconcerning the kingdom of God.

9 But ^jwhen divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil ^mof ^othat way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the ⁶school of one Tyrannus^β.

10 And ⁿthis continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And ⁹God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 ^pSo that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ ^qThen certain of the ⁷vagabond Jews, exorcists, ^rtook upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and ⁸chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, ⁹Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame ^βthem, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and ¹ fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and ² confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 ³ So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ ⁴ After these things were ended, Paul ⁵ purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, ⁶ I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of ⁷ them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and ⁸ Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And ⁹ the same time there arose no small stir about ¹⁰ that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for ¹¹ Diana, brought ¹² no small gain unto the craftsmen; ¹³ 25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that ¹⁴ they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess ¹⁵ Diana should be despised, and ¹⁶ her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is ¹⁷ Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught ¹⁸ Gaius and ¹⁹ Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the ²⁰ chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And ²¹ they ²² drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And ²³ Alexander ²⁴ beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is ²⁵ Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is ²⁶ a ²⁷ worshipper of the great goddess ²⁸ Diana, and of the image which fell down from ²⁹ Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of ³⁰ churches, nor yet blasphemers of ³¹ your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, ³² the law is open, and there are ³³ deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing ³⁴ concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a ³⁵ lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no ³⁶ cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Paul goeth to Macedonia. 7 He celebrateth the Lord's supper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus having fallen down dead, 10 is raised to life. 17 At Miletum he calleth the elders together, telleth them what shall befall to himself, 28 commendeth God's flock to them, 29 warneth them of false teachers, 32 commendeth them to God, 35 prayeth with them, and goeth his way.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and ^βembraced them, and ^αdeparted for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And ^βwhen the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him ^βinto Asia ^βSopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, ^εAristarchus and Secundus; and ^αGaius of Derbe, and ^εTimotheus; and of ^δAsia, ^ζTychicus and ^ηTrophimus.

5 These ^βgoing before tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after ^αthe days of unleavened bread, and came unto them ^ιto Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon ^αthe first day of the week, when the disciples came together ^ιto break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights ^πin the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat ^ιin a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and ^αfell on him, and embracing him said, 20 Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken ^αbread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ^α And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go aloft.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we ^ιarrived at Samos, and ^βtarried at Trogyllium; and ^βthe next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for ^πhe hastied, if it were possible for him, ^οto be at Jerusalem ^τthe day of Pentecost.

17 ^η And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, ^αfrom the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner ^βI have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me ^ιby the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how ^αI kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 ^αTestifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, ^ηrepentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, ^αI go bound ^οin the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that ^αthe Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions ^ιshall abide me.

24 But ^βnone of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, ^εso that I might finish my course ^γwith joy ^γ, and the ministry, ^αwhich I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, ^fI know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom ^gof God ^h, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I ⁱam ^jpure from the blood of all ^kmen.

27 For ^lI have not shunned to declare unto you all ^mthe counsel of God.

28 ¶ Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost ⁿhath made you ^ooverseers, to feed the church of ^pGod, ^qwhich he hath purchased ^rwith ^shis own ^tblood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing ^ushall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also ^vof your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that ^wby the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and ^xto the word of his grace, which is able ^yto build you up, and to give you ^zan inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 ^aI have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, ^bthat these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, ^chow that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he ^dkneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and ^efell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words ^fwhich he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

AND it came to pass, that after we ¹were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had ²discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And ³finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: ^awho said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had ³accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and ^bwe kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned ^chome again.

7 And ⁴when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and we entered into the house of Philip ^dthe evangelist, ^ewhich was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, ^fwhich did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, named ^gAgabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, ^hSo shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, ^aThe will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we ^btook up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought ^cwith them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 ^dAnd when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto ^eJames; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, ^fhe declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles ^gby his ministry.

20 And when they heard ^hit, they glorified ⁱthe Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands ^jof Jews ^kthere are which believe; and they are all ^lzealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise ^mtheir children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? ⁿthe multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may ^oshave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, ^pwe have written and concluded that ^qthey observe no such thing, save only that ^rthey keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, ^vthe Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and ^wlaid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, ^xthat teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city ^yTrophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And ^zall the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they ⁷ bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, ^m Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the ² chief captain, saying, ^β Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the ⁵ chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the ⁵ chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have ^{||} examined him: and the ⁵ chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23.

1 As Paul pleadeth his cause, 2 Ananias commandeth them to smite him. 7 Dissension among his accusers. 11 God encourageth him. 14 The Jews' laying wait for Paul 20 is declared unto the chief captain. 27 He semeth him to Felix the governor.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, ^a I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him ^b to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and ^c commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, ^d I ¹ wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, ^e Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, ^f I am a Pharisee, the son of ^β a Pharisee: ^g of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 ^h For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and ^β the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, ⁱ We find no evil in this man: ^j but ^k if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, ^l let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the ² chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the ⁴ castle.

11 And ^m the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, ^β ⁿ certain of ^β the Jews banded together, and bound themselves ^{||} under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the ² chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would ⁴ enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, ⁵ he went and entered into the ⁴ castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the 18 So he took him, and brought him to the ²chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the ²chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, ^oThe Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though ^βthey would enquire somewhat ⁶of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for ⁷a promise from thee.

22 So the ²chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred ⁸soldiers to go to Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and ⁹spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And ¹⁰provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 ^pThis man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with ¹¹an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 ^qAnd when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused ^rof questions of their law, ^sbut to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And ^twhen it was told me how that ^βthe Jews laid wait for the man, ^vI sent straightway to thee, and ^ugave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. ^δFarewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the ³castle:

33 Who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of ²Cilicia;

35 ^yI will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in ^zHerod's ¹²judgment hall.

AND after ^afive days ^bAnanias the high priest descended with ^βthe elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that ^βvery worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 ^a Commanding his accusers to come unto thee^b: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also ^b assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do ^b the more ^b cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem ^a for to worship.

12 ⁱ And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after ^k the way which they call ^l heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in ^m the law and in the prophets:

15 And ⁿ have hope toward God, which they themselves also ^o allow, ^o that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 ^p And ^p herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after ^q many years ^q I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 ^r Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 ^s Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same ^t here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council.

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, ^t Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question ^b by you this day.

22 And ^b when Felix heard these things ^b, having more perfect knowledge of ⁱ that way, he deferred them, and said, When ^a Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will ^k know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded ^a a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have ^l liberty, and ^l that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in ^b Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time: when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that ^v money should have been given him of Paul. ^b that he might loose him ^b: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, ^z willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER 25.

2 The Jews accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answerseth for himself. 11 and appealeth unto Cæsar. 14 Afterwards Festus openeth his matter to king Arrrippa, 23 and he is brought forth. 25 Festus cleareth him to have done nothing worthy of death.

NOW when Festus was ^l come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæsarea to Jerusalem. 2 ^a Then the ^b high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, ^b laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are ^z able, go down with me, and accuse this man, ^z if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them ^β || more than ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

8 While he answered for himself, ^e Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæsar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, ^f willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, ^g Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 ^h For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may ⁱ deliver me unto them. ⁱ I appeal unto Cæsar.

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself: 2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus: but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, 9 Almost thou ⁸persuadest me ⁷to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, ⁶I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, ¹⁰were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them :

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, ⁵This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus,
This man might have been set at liberty, ²if he had not appealed unto Cæsar.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Paul shipping toward Rome, ¹⁰foretelleth of the danger of the voyage, ¹¹but is not believed.
¹⁴They are tossed to and fro with tempest, ⁴¹ and suffer shipwreck, ²², ³⁴, ⁴⁴ yet all come safe to land.

AND when ^ait was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a cen-turion of ¹Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Ad-ramyttium, ^βwe launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; ^{one} ^bAristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius ^ccourteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to ²refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed ³under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, ^aa city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy;
and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and ⁴scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind ⁵not suffering us, we sailed ³under || Crete,

over against Salmone;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens;
nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when ⁶sailing was now dangerous, ^abecause ⁷the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with || hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; ^{which} is an haven of Crete, and ^{lieth} toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained ^{their} purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there ⁹|| arose against it a tempestuous wind, called ^βEuroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind,
we let ^{her} drive.

16 And running ³under a certain island which is called ^βClauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should ¹⁰fall into the quicksands, ¹¹strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day ^{β^c}we cast out with our own hands the ¹²tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days ¹³ appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and ¹¹ to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 ^f For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and ⁹ whom I serve,

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: ^a for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit ⁱ we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon ¹³ rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your ¹⁶ health: for ^a there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship, ^β two hundred threescore and sixteen ^m souls ^β.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a ¹⁷ shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to ^β thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had ⁱ taken up the anchors, they ¹⁹ committed themselves unto the sea, and ²⁰ loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the ²¹ mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into ²² a place where two seas met, ^a they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, ^a that they escaped all safe to land.

2 And the ¹barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper ^βout of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the ¹barbarians saw the renomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet ²vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and ^cfelt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but ³after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and ^dsaid that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and ^eprayed, and ^flaid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many ^ghonours; and when we departed, they laden us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was ¹Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we ^βfetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, ^βthe centurion delivered the prisoners to the ⁵captain of the guard: but ^β⁴Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called ⁶the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, ⁷Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet ⁴was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, ^mI was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore ⁸have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that ^afor the hope of Israel I am bound with ^othis chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judæa concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where ^pit is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; ^qto whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, ^rboth out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And ^ssome believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto ^βour fathers,

26 Saying, ^tGo unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

*THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

ROMANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romans, 9 and his desire to come to them. 16 What his gospel is, and the righteousness which it sheweth. 18 God is angry with all manner of sin. 21 What were the sins of the Gentiles.

PAUL, a ¹servant of Jesus Christ, ^acalled to be an apostle, ^bseparated unto the gospel of God,

2 ^cWhich he had promised afore ^dby his prophets in ²the holy scriptures,

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, ^ewhich was ^fmade of the seed of David according to the flesh; 4 And ^gdeclared to be the Son of God ^hwith power, according ⁱto the ^jspirit of holiness, by the resurrection ^kfrom the dead:

5 By whom ^lwe have received grace and apostleship, ^mfor ⁿobedience to the faith among all nations, ^ofor his name:

6 Among whom are ye also ^pthe called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that be ^qin Rome ^r, beloved of God, ^scalled to be saints: ^tGrace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, ^uI thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that ^vyour faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For ^wGod is my witness, ^xwhom I serve ^ywith my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that ^zwithout ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 ^aMaking request, if by any means ^bnow at length I might have a prosperous journey ^cby the will of God to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that ^dI may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that ^eI may be comforted together ^fwith you by ^gthe mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that ^hoftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but ⁱwas let hitherto,) that I might have some ^jfruit ^kamong you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 ^lI am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For ^mI am not ashamed of the gospel ⁿof Christ ^o: for ^pit is ^qthe power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; ^rto the Jew ^sfirst ^t, and also to the Greek.

17 For ^o therein is ¹⁵ the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, ¹⁶ ^k The just shall live by faith.

18 ⁱ For ¹⁷ the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who ¹⁸ hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because ^k that which ¹⁹ may be known of God is manifest || in them; for ^l God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For ^m the invisible things of him ²⁰ from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and ²¹ Godhead; ²² || so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but ⁿ became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 ^o Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible ^p God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 ^q Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness ²³ through the lusts of their own hearts, ^r to dishonour their own bodies ^s between themselves:

25 Who changed ^t the truth of God ^u into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature || more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto ^v vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they ²⁴ did not like

|| to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to || a reprobate mind, to do those things ^z which are not convenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, ^β fornication^β, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, ²⁵ debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, ²⁶ haters of God, ²⁷ despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, || without natural affection, ^β implacable^β, unmerciful:

32 Who ^a knowing the ²⁸ judgment of God, that they which commit such things ^b are worthy of death, not only do the same, but ²⁹ || ^c have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER 2.

1 They that sin, though they condemn it in others, cannot excuse themselves, 6 and much less escape the judgment of God, 9 whether they be Jews or Gentiles. 14 The Gentiles cannot escape, 17 nor yet the Jews, 25 whom their circumcision shall not profit, if they keep not the law.

THEREFORE thou art ^a inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: ^b for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou ^c the riches of his goodness and ^d forbearance and ^e long-suffering; ^f not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart ^g treasurest up unto thyself wrath ¹ against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 ^h Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But unto them that are ² contentious, and ⁱ do not obey the truth, 13 (For ⁿ not the hearers of [†] the law are just before God, but the doers of [†] the law shall be justified.

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is [†] written.

25 ^o For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep [†] the law: but if thou be a breaker of [†] the law, thy circumcision ¹⁴ is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore [†] if the uncircumcision keep the ¹⁵ righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And ¹⁶ shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, ^o judge thee, who ¹⁷ by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For [†] he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

5 But if our unrighteousness ⁵ commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (^h I speak as a man)

6 ³ God forbid: for then ⁱ how shall God judge the world?

7 ^β For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why ⁶ yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And ⁷ not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) ^k Let us do evil, that good may come? whose ⁸ damnation is just.

9 What then? ⁹ are we better than they? ¹⁰ No, in no wise: for we have before ¹¹ + proved both Jews and Gentiles, that ^l they are all under sin;

10 As it is written, ^m There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 ⁿ Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; ^o the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 ^p Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 ^q Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 ^r Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 ^s There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever ^t the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that ^u every mouth may be stopped, and ^v all the world may become || guilty before God.

20 ¹³ Therefore ^w by the deeds of ¹⁴ the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for ^y by ¹¹ the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now ¹⁵ ^z the righteousness of God ¹⁶ without ¹⁷ the law ¹⁸ is manifested, ^a being witnessed by the law ^b and the prophets;

22 Even ¹⁵ the righteousness of God which is ^c by faith of Jesus Christ unto all ^β and upon all ^β them that believe: for ^d there is no difference:

23 For ^e all have sinned, and ¹⁹ come short of ²⁰ the glory of God;

24 Being justified freely ^f by his grace ^g through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath ²¹ || set forth ^h to be a ²² propitiation through faith ²³ in his blood, to declare his righteousness ²⁴ ^k for the || remission of ⁱ sins that are past, ²⁵ through the forbearance of God;

26 ²⁶ To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him ²⁷ which believeth in Jesus.

27 ^m Where is ²⁸ boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 ^β Therefore we ²⁹ conclude ⁿ that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 ³⁰ Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing ³¹ ^o it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void ¹⁷ the law through faith? ³² God forbid: yea, we establish ¹⁷ the law.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Abraham's faith was imputed to him for righteousness, 10 before he was circumcised. 13 By faith only he and his seed received the promise. 16 Abraham is the father of all that believe. 24 Our faith also shall be imputed to us for righteousness.

WHAT shall we say then ^βthat ^αAbraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found ^β?

2 For if Abraham ¹were ⁶justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? ^αAbraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now ^αto him that worketh ³is the reward not ³reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth ^αthe ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God ⁴imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, ⁷Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not ⁵impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, that faith was ⁶reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then ⁶reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And ⁹he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that ⁴he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through ⁷the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For ⁴if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because ¹the law worketh wrath: ^βfor where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be ^αby grace; ^αto the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; ^αwho is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, ²I have made thee a father of many nations,) ⁸|| before him whom he believed, even God, ⁹who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those ⁷things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, ⁴So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, ¹he ^βconsidered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb:

20 ⁹He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, ⁴he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was ⁶imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now ²it was not written for his sake alone, that it was ⁶imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be ⁶imputed, ¹⁰if we believe ²on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

25 ²Who was delivered for our offences, and ⁴was raised again for our justification.

2^c By whom also we ¹ have ² access β by faith^β into this grace^d wherein we stand, and ^{3e} rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but ^f we glory in ⁴ tribulations also: ^g knowing that tribulation worketh ^h patience;

4 ^k And ⁵ patience, ⁶ experience; and
⁶ experience, hope:

5 ⁱ And hope maketh not ashamed;
^k because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which ⁷ is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, ⁸ || in due time ¹ Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: ⁹ yet peradventure for ¹⁰ a good man ¹¹ some would even dare to die.

8 But ^m God ¹² commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified ⁿ by his blood, we shall be saved ^o from ¹³ wrath through him.

10 For ^p if, when we were enemies, ^q we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconcil-ed, we shall be saved ^r by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also
^s joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the ¹⁴ || atonement.

12 Wherefore, as ^t by one man sin entered into the world, and ^u death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, || for that all ¹⁵ have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but ^v sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, ^w who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of ¹⁶ one ¹⁷ many ¹⁸ be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by ¹⁶ one man, Jesus Christ, ¹⁹ hath abounded ²⁰ unto ¹⁷ many.

16 And not as ²⁰ it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was ²¹ by one to condemnation, but the free gift ²² is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if || by ¹⁶ one man's offence death reigned ²³ by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life ²³ by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as ²⁴ || by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so ²⁵ || by the righteousness of one the free gift came ^a upon all men unto justification ²⁶ of life.

19 For as by ¹⁶ one man's disobedience ¹⁷ many were made sinners, so by the obedience of ¹⁶ one shall ¹⁷ many be made righteous.

20 ²⁷ Moreover ^b the law ²⁸ entered, that the offence might ²⁹ abound. But where sin abounded, grace did ³⁰ much ^c more abound:

21 That as sin ³¹ hath reigned ³² unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6.

1 We may not live in sin. 2 for we are dead unto it.
3 as appeareth by our baptism. 12 Let not sin reign any more, 18 because we have yielded ourselves to the service of righteousness, 23 and for that death is the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? ^a Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 ¹ God forbid. How shall we, that ² ^a dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that ^c so many of us
as || were baptized into Jesus Christ
^d were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we ³ are ^e buried with him by baptism into ^d death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 4 But we are dead to the law. 7 Yet is not the law sin, 12 but holy, just, good, 16 as I acknowledged, e, who am grieved because I cannot keep it.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who

1s. 1. 6.

⁵ For when we were in the flesh, the [†] motions of sins, which were by the law, ^e did work in our members ^f to bring forth fruit unto death.

⁶ But ^g now we are delivered from the law, ^β || that being dead wherein we were held; ¹⁰ that we should ¹⁰ serve ^g in newness ¹¹ of spirit, and not in the oldness ¹¹ of the letter.

⁷ What shall we say then? Is the law sin? ¹² God forbid. ¹³ Nay, ^h I ¹⁴ had not known sin, but ¹⁵ by the law: for I had not known || lust, except the law had said, ⁱ Thou shalt not ¹⁶ covet.

⁸ But ^k sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of ¹⁷ concupiscence. For ¹⁸ without ¹⁹ the law sin ²⁰ was dead.

⁹ ²¹ For I was alive ¹⁵ without ¹⁹ the law once: but when the commandment came, sin ²² revived, and I died.

¹⁰ And the commandment, ^m which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

¹¹ For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

¹² Wherefore ⁿ the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

¹³ ²³ Was then that which is good ²⁴ made death unto me? ¹² God forbid. ²⁵ But sin, that it might appear sin, working death ²⁶ in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

¹⁴ For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, ^o sold ²⁷ under sin.

¹⁵ For that which I ²⁸ do I ²⁹ † allow not: for ³⁰ ^p what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

¹⁶ If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

¹⁷ Now then it is no more I that ²⁸ do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

¹⁸ For I know that ^q in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but ^{how} to perform that which is good I find not.

¹⁹ For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

²⁰ Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that ²⁸ do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

²¹ I find then ³¹ a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

²² For I ^r delight in the law of God after ^s the inward man:

²³ But ^t I see ³² another law in ^u my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity ^β to the law of sin which is in my members.

²⁴ O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from ³³ || the body of this death?

²⁵ ^v I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8.

1 They that are in Christ, and live according to the Spirit, are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit: 17 and what of being God's child, 19 whose glorious deliverance all things long for, 29 was beforehand decreed from God. 38 What can sever us from his love?

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, ^β who ^a walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit ^β.

² For ^b the law of ^c the Spirit of life ¹ in Christ Jesus hath made ^β me free from ^d the law of sin and death.

flesh, ¹ God sending his own Son in the likeness of ² sinful flesh, and ⁴ for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the ⁵ righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, ⁶ who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For ^h they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit ⁱ the things of the Spirit.

6 For ^k to be carnally minded is death; but ⁷ to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because ⁶ the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, ^m neither indeed can be.

8 So then ^s they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that ^a the Spirit of God dwell in you. ⁹ Now if any man have not ^o the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of ^p him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, ^q he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies ⁸ || by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For ^r if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do ¹⁰ mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For ^u as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ^v ye ¹¹ have not received the spirit of bondage again ^v to fear; but ye ¹² have received the ^v Spirit of adoption, ¹³ whereby we cry, ^a Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness

¹⁴ with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; ^c heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; ^d if so be that we suffer with him, ¹⁵ that we may be also glorified ¹⁶ together.

18 For I reckon that ^e the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed ¹⁷ in us.

19 For ^f the ¹⁸ earnest expectation of the ¹⁹ creature waiteth for the ²⁰ manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For ^h the ¹⁹ creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of ²¹ him who ²² hath subjected the same ²³ in hope, 21 Because ² the ¹⁹ creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the ²⁴ glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that || the whole creation ⁱ groaneth and travaileth in pain ²⁵ together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have ^k the firstfruits of the Spirit, ^l even we ourselves groan within ourselves, ^m waiting for the adoption, to wit, the ⁿ redemption of our body.

24 For we ²⁶ are saved by hope: but ^o hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for ^p we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but ^q the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And ^r he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, ²⁸ || because he maketh intercession for the saints ^s according to the will of God.

1 Paul is sorry for the Jews. 7 All the seed of Abraham were not the children of the promise. 18 God hath mercy upon whom he will. 21 The potter may do with his clay what he list. 25 The calling of the Gentiles and rejecting of the Jews were foretold. 32 The cause why so few Jews embraced the righteousness of faith.

I ^αSAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 ^βThat I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For ^γI could wish that myself were ^δaccursed from Christ ²for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 ^αWho are Israelites; ^εto whom pertaineth the adoption, and ^ςthe glory, and ^θthe covenants, and ^κthe giving of the law, and ^λthe service of God, and ^μthe promises;

6 ^οNot as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For ^πthey are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 ^ρNeither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In ^σIsaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but ^τthe children of the promise are counted for ³the³ seed.

9 ^αFor this is the word of promise, ^εAt this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when ^βRebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of ^γhim that calleth;)

12 It was said unto her, ^δThe ^εelder shall serve the ^ζyounger.

14 What shall we say then? ^aIs there unrighteousness with God? ^bGod forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, ^cI will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that wilketh, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For ^dthe scripture saith unto Pharaoh, ^eEven for this same purpose ^fhave I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will ^ghave mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For ^hwho ⁱhath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that ^jreplieth against God? ^kShall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the ^lpotter power over the clay, of the same lump to make ^mone vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, ⁿwilling to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering ^othe ^pvessels of wrath ^qfitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known ^rthe riches of his glory on ^sthe ^tvessels of mercy, which he had ^ubefore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, ^vnot of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Osee, ^wI will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 ^xAnd it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people: there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, ^yThough the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, ^za remnant shall be saved:

28 For ^{aa}he will finish ^{ab}the work, and cut ^{ac}it short in righteousness: ^{ad}because a short work will the Lord make ^{ae}upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias ^{af}said before, 'Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, ^{ag}we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? ^{ah}That ^{ai}the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, ^{aj}have attained to righteousness, ^{ak}even the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel, ^{al}which followed after the law of righteousness, ^{am}hath not attained to the law ^{an}of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works ^{ao}of the law. For ^{ap}they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, ^{aq}Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and ^{ar}whosoever believeth on him shall not be ^{as}ashamed.

CHAPTER 10.

5 The scripture sheweth the difference betwixt the righteousness of the law, and this of faith, 11 and that all, both Jew and Gentile, that believe, shall not be confounded, 18 and that the Gentiles shall receive the word and believe. 19 Israel was not ignorant of these things.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record ^athat they have a zeal ^bof God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they ^cbeing ignorant of ^dGod's righteousness, and going about to establish their own ^erighteousness, ^fhave not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For ^gChrist is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses ^β describeth the righteousness which is of the law, ^c That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, ^f Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above.)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the ^g deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? ^g The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That ^h if thou shalt confess with thy mouth ^h the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, ⁱ Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ⁱ ashamed.

12 For ^k there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for ^k the same Lord over all ^m is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 ⁿ For whosoever shall call ⁿ upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him ^o of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear ^p without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? ^q as it is written, ^q How beautiful are the feet of them that ^β preach the gospel of peace, and ^β bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But ^r they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, ^r Lord, who hath believed ^r our ^r report?

17 So then ^s faith cometh by ^s hearing, and ^s hearing by the word of ^s God.

18 But I say, ^t Have they not heard? Yes verily, ^t their sound went into all the earth, ^t and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, ^u I will provoke you to jealousy ^u by them that are no people, and ^u by a ^u foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, ^v I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But ^w to Israel he saith, ^w All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11.

1 God hath not cast off all Israel. 7 Some were elected, though the rest were hardened. 16 There is hope of their conversion. 18 The Gentiles may not insult upon them: 26 for there is a promise of their salvation. 33 God's judgments are unsearchable.

I SAY then, ^a Hath God cast away his people? ^a God forbid. For ^b I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which ^c he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith ^c of Elias? how he ^c maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 ^d Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? ^e I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 ^f Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And ^g if by grace, then ^g is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. ^h But if ^h it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work ^h.

7 What then? ⁱ Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were ^j blinded.

9 And David saith, ^l Let their table be made a snare, and a ^mtrap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

10 ⁿ Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back away.

11 I say then, ^o Have they stumbled that they should fall? ^p God forbid: but rather ^q through their ^r fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the ^s fall of them be the riches of the world, and ^t the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more ^u their fulness?

13 ^v For I speak to you ^w Gentiles, inasmuch as ^x I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation ^y them which are my flesh, and ^z might save some of them.

15 For if by the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 ^{aa} For if ^{ab} the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 ^{ac} And if ^{ad} some of the branches be broken off, ^{ae} and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in ^{af} among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 ^{ag} Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. ^{ah} Be not highminded, but ^{ai} fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, ^{aj} take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, ^{ak} goodness, ^{al} if thou continue in ^{am} his goodness: otherwise ^{an} thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, ^{ao} if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be ^{ap} wise in your own conceits; that ^{aq} blindness in part is happened to Israel, ^{ar} until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, ^{as} There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

27 ^{at} For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall ^{au} take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are ^{av} beloved for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God ^{aw} are ^{ax} without repentance.

30 For as ye ^{ay} in times past ^{az} have not ^{ba} believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their ^{bb} unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now ^{bc} not ^{bd} believed, ^{be} that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For ^{bf} God hath ^{bg} concluded them all in ^{bh} unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches ^{bi} both of the wisdom and knowledge of God!

34 * For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or ^o who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or ^p who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For ^q of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: ^r to [†] whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER 12.

1 God's mercies must move us to please God. 3 No man must think too well of himself, 6 but attend every one on that calling wherein he is placed. 9 Love, and many other duties, are required of us. 19 Revenge is specially forbidden.

I ^a BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, ^b that ye ^c present your bodies ^d a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your ^e reasonable service.

2 And ^e be not ^s conformed to this ^t world: but ^f be ye transformed ^u by the renewing of your mind, that ye may ^g prove what is ^h that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, ^a through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, ⁱ not to ^j think of himself more highly than he ought to ^k think; but to ^k think [†] soberly, according as God hath dealt ^k to every man the measure of faith.

4 For ^l as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So ^m we, ⁿ being many, are one body in Christ, ^o and every one members one of another.

6 [†] Having then gifts differing ^o according to the grace that is given to us, whether [†] prophecy, let us [†] prophesy according to the proportion of [†] faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or ^q he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or ^r he that exhorteth, on exhortation: ^s he that [†] giveth, [†] let him do it [†] with [†] simplicity; ^t he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, ^u with cheerfulness.

9 * Let love be without dissimulation. ^v Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 * Be kindly affectioned one to another [†] with brotherly love; [†] in honour [†] preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in [†] business; fervent in spirit; serving the [†] Lord;

12 [†] Rejoicing in hope; [†] patient in tribulation; [†] continuing instant in prayer;

13 [†] Distributing to the necessity of saints; [†] given to hospitality.

14 [†] Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 [†] Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 [†] Be of the same mind one toward another. [†] Mind not high things, but [†] condescend to men of low estate. [†] Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 [†] Recompense to no man evil for evil. [†] Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, [†] live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, [†] avenge not yourselves, but [†] rather [†] give place unto wrath: for it is written, [†] Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 [†] Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Subjection, and many other duties, we owe to the magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 Gluttony and drunkenness, and the works of darkness, are out of season in the time of the gospel.

LET every soul ^abe subject unto ¹the higher ²powers. For ³there is no ²power but of God: the ²powers that be are ^{||}ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth ^cthe ²power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves ³damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the ²power? ^ddo that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For ⁴he is ⁵the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is ⁵the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ^eye must needs be subject, not only ⁶for wrath, ^fbut also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause ⁷pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ⁸ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for ^hhe that loveth ⁹another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, ⁱThou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, ^jThou shalt not bear false witness ^k, Thou shalt not covet; and if ^lthere be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, ⁴Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore ^llove is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the ^mtime, that now it is high time ⁿto awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we ^{||}believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: ^olet us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and ^olet us put on the armour of light.

13 ^pLet us walk ^{||}honestly, as in the day; ^qnot in rioting and drunkenness, ^rnot in chambering and wantonness, ^snot in strife and envying.

14 But ^tput ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and ^umake not provision for the flesh, to ^{||}fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14.

3 Men may not condemn one the other for things indifferents: 13 but take heed that they give no offence in them: 15 for that the apostle preacheth unlawful by many seasons.

HIM ¹that ²is weak in the faith receive ye, ²but ^{||}not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one ³believeth that he ⁴may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and ⁵let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 ^aWho art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be ⁴holden up: for ^bGod is able to make him stand.

5 ^cOne man esteemeth ⁵one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be ^{||}fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that ^dregardeth the day, regardeth ^eit unto the Lord; ^fand he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard ^{||}it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for ^ghe giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For ^hnone of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For ⁱto this end Christ both died, and ^jrose, and revived, that he might be ^k Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or ⁶ why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for ⁷ we shall all stand before the judgment seat of ⁸ Christ.

11 For it is written, ^m As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall ⁷ confess to God.

12 So then ⁿ every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that ^o no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in ^{his} brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded ⁸ by the Lord Jesus, ^p that there is nothing [†] unclean of itself: but ^q to him that esteemeth any thing to be [†] unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with ^{thy} meat, ^r now walkest thou not [†] charitably. ⁷ Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 ^s Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 ^t For the kingdom of God is not ¹⁰ meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ ^u is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 ^β Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith ^v one may ¹¹ edify another.

20 ^z For meat destroy not the work of God. ^a All things indeed are pure; ^b but it is evil for that man who eateth ¹² with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat ^c flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother ¹³ stumbleth, ^β or is offended, or is made weak ^β.

22 ^β Hast thou faith? have ^{it} ^β to thyself before God. ^d Happy is he that ¹⁴ condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 ¹⁵ And he that ^{||} doubteth ¹⁶ is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for ¹⁷ whatsoever is not of faith is sin ⁸.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The strong must bear with the weak. 2 We may not please ourselves, 3 for Christ did not so, 7 but receive one the other, as Christ did us all, 8 both Jews 9 and Gentiles. 15 Paul excuseth his writing, 28 and promiseth to see them, 30 and requesteth their prayers.

¹ WE ^a then that are strong ought to bear the ^b infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 ^c Let every one of us please ^{his} neighbour for ^{his} good ^d to ² edification.

3 ^e For ³ even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, ⁷ The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For ⁹ whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through ⁴⁵ patience and comfort of the scriptures might have ⁶ hope.

5 ^k Now the God of ⁵ patience and ⁷ consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another ^{||} according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may ¹ with one mind and one mouth glorify ⁸ God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore ^k receive ye one another, ¹ as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 ^β Now I say that ^m Jesus Christ ⁷ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, ⁿ to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 ⁹ And ^o that the Gentiles ¹⁰ might glorify God for ^{his} mercy; as it is written, ^p For this cause I will ¹¹ confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

11 And again, ^r Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, Esaias saith, ^a There shall be ¹³ a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ^t joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And ^u I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye ¹⁴ also are full of goodness, ^w filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, ^x because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That ^y I should be ¹⁵ the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ¹⁶ ministering the gospel of God, that the ¹⁷ ^z offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore ¹⁸ whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ ¹⁹ ^a in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak ²⁰ of any of those things ^b which Christ hath not wrought by me, ^c to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, 19 ²¹ ^d Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the ^β Spirit of God ^β; so that from Jerusalem, and ²² round about ²³ unto Illyricum, I have ²⁴ fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 ²⁵ Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, ^e lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, ^f To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also ^g I have been ²⁶ || much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more ²⁷ place in these parts, and ^h having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, ^β I will come to you ^β: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled ⁱ with your company.

25 But now ^k I go unto Jerusalem ²⁸ to minister unto the saints.

26 For ^l it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for ²⁹ the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For ^m if the Gentiles have been made ³⁰ partakers of their spiritual things, ⁿ their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have ³¹ sealed to them ^o this fruit, I will come ³² by you into Spain.

29 ^p And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of ^β the gospel of ^β Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and ^q for the love of the Spirit, ^r that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me:

31 ^s That I may be delivered from them that ³³ || do not believe in Judæa; and that ^t my ³⁴ service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

32 ^u That I may come unto you with joy ^v by the will of ^β God, ^v and may with you be ^w refreshed ^y.

33 Now ^z the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

*THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

After his salutation and thanksgiving, 10 he exhorteth them to unity, and 12 reproveth their dissensions. 18 God destroyeth the wisdom of the wise, 21 by the foolishness of preaching, and 26 calleth not the wise, mighty, and noble, but 27, 28 the foolish, weak, and men of no account.

PAUL, ^acalled to be an apostle of Jesus Christ ^bthrough the will of God, and ^cSosthenes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, ^dto them that ^eare sanctified in Christ Jesus, ^fcalled to be saints, with all that ¹in every place ^gcall upon the name of Jesus Christ ^hour Lord, ⁱboth their's and our's:

3 ^kGrace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ^lI thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which ^mis given you ⁿby Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are ²enriched by him, ³in all ⁴utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as ⁵the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; ⁶waiting for the ⁷coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 ⁸Who shall also confirm you unto the end, ⁹that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 ⁹God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto ¹⁰the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹¹that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no ¹²divisions among you; but that ye be ¹³perfectly joined together ¹⁴in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them ¹⁵which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, ¹⁶that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of ¹⁷Apollus; and I of ¹⁸Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 ¹⁹β: 1s Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized ²⁰in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but ²¹Crispus and ²²Gaius;

15 Lest any should say that ²³β I had baptized ²⁴in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of ²⁵Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: ²⁶not with wisdom of ²⁷words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to ²⁸them that perish ²⁹foolishness; but unto us ³⁰which ³¹are saved it is the ³²power of God.

19 For it is written, ³³I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 ³⁴Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? ³⁵hath not God made foolish the wisdom of ³⁶β this world?

21 ³⁷For ³⁸after that in the wisdom of God the world by ³⁹wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of ⁴⁰preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the ⁴¹Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, ⁴²unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the ⁴³β Greeks ⁴⁴foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ ⁴⁵the power of God, and ⁴⁶the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ¹¹ye see your calling, brethren, how that ¹²not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called :

27 But ¹God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and ²things which are not, ³to bring to nought things that are :

29 ⁴That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God ¹³is made unto us ⁴wisdom, and ⁵a righteousness, and ⁶sanctification, and ⁷redemption :

31 That, according as it is written, ⁸He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2.

He declareth that his preaching, 1 though it bring not excellency of speech, or of 4 human wisdom: yet consisteth in the 1, 5 power of God: and so far excelleth 6 the wisdom of this world, and 9 human sense, as that 14 the natural man cannot understand it.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, ^acame not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you ^bthe ^βtestimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, ^csave Jesus Christ, ¹and him crucified.

3 And ^dI was with you ^ein weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching ^fwas not with ^{||}enticing words of ^βman's ^βwisdom, ^gbut in demonstration of the Spirit and of power :

5 That your faith should not [†]stand in the wisdom of men, but ^hin the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them ⁱthat are ²perfect: yet not ^kthe wisdom of this ³world, nor of the princes of this ³world, ^lthat ⁴come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, ^mwhich God ordained before ⁵the world unto our glory :

8 ⁿWhich none of the princes of this ³world knew: for ^ohad they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, ^pEye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 [†]But ^qGod hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, ^rsave the spirit of man which is in him? ^seven so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but ^tthe spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 ^uWhich things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which ^βthe Holy Ghost teacheth; ⁸comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 ^vBut the ⁹natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: ^wfor they are foolishness unto him: ^xneither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 ^yBut he that is spiritual ¹⁰|| judgeth all things, yet he himself is ¹⁰|| judged of no man.

16 ^zFor who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he [†]may instruct him? [†]But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3.

2 Milk is fit for children. 3 Strife and division, arguments of a fleshly mind. 7 He that planteth, and he that watereth, is nothing. 9 The ministers are God's fellowworkmen. 11 Christ the only foundation. 16 Men the temples of God, which 17 must be kept holy. 19 The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto ^aspiritual, but as unto ^bcarnal, even as unto ^cbabes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with ^dmilk, and not with meat: ^efor hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for ^fwhereas there is among you envying, and strife, and \parallel divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk ^gas men?

4 For while one saith, ^hI am of Paul: and another, I am of Apollos;
are ye not ⁱcarnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ^kministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 ^kI have planted, ^lApollos watered;
but God gave the increase.

7 So then ^mneither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth;
but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: ⁿand every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For ^owe are labourers together with God: ye are God's \parallel husbandry, ye are ^pGod's building.

10 ^rAccording to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid ^sthe foundation, and another buildeth thereon.
But ^tlet every man take heed
how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than ^uthat is laid, ^vwhich is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 ^wEvery man's work shall be made manifest: for ^xthe day ^yshall declare it, because ^zit ^ashall be revealed ^bby fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, ^che shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved: ^dyet so as by fire.

16 ^eKnow ye not that ye are ^fthe temple of God, and ^gthat the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man ^hdefile the temple of God, him shall God ⁱdestroy: for the temple of God is holy, ^jwhich temple ye are.

18 ^kLet no man deceive himself. If any man among you ^lseemeth to be wise in this ^mworld, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For ⁿthe wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, ^oHe taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, ^pThe Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore ^qlet no man glory in men. For ^rall things are your's;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things ^spresent, or things to come;
all are your's;

23 And ^tye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER 4.

1 In what account the ministers ought to be had.
7 We have nothing which we have not received.
9 The apostles spectacles to the world, angels, and men, 13 the fifth and appearing of the world: 15 yet our fathers in Christ, 16 whom we ought to follow.

1 ^LET a man so account of us, as of ^athe ministers of Christ, ^band stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 ^bMoreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be ^cjudged of you, or of man's ^djudgment: yea, I ^ejudge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing ^fby myself; ^gyet am I not hereby justified: but he that ^hjudgeth me is the Lord.

5 ⁱTherefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, ^jwho both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts:
and ^kthen shall every man have ^lpraise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, ^mI have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes:

written, that no one of you ⁱ be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who [†]maketh thee to differ from another? and ^kwhat hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 ⁶Now ye are full, ^{6'}now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth || us the apostles last, ^mas it were appointed to death: for ⁿwe are made a [†]spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 ^oWe are ^pfools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; ^qwe are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 ^rEven unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and ^sare naked, and ^tare buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 ^uAnd labour, working with our own hands: ^vbeing reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: ^wwe are made as the ⁷filth of the world, and are the ⁷offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but ^zas my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet ^{have} ye not many fathers: for ^ain Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, ^bbe ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you ^cTimotheus, ^dwho is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you ^einto remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I ^fteach every where ^gin every church.

18 ^hNow some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 ⁱBut I will come to you shortly, ^kif the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For ^lthe kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? ^mshall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5.

1 The incestuous person ⁶is cause rather of shame unto them, than of rejoicing. 7 The old leaven is to be purged out. 10 Heinous offenders are to be shunned and avoided.

1 ^IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication ^βas is not so much as ^αnamed among the Gentiles, ^δthat one should have his ^εfather's wife.

2 ^{And} ye are puffed up, and have not rather ^εmourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 ^{For} I verily, ^βas ^βabsent in body, but present in spirit, have || judged already, as though I were present, ^{concerning} him that hath so done this deed,

4 ^{In} the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, ^gwith the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 ^{To} deliver ² such an one unto ⁱSatan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord ^βJesus ^β.

6 ^{Your} glorying is not good. Know ye not that ^alittle leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For ³even ^mChrist our ^{passover} || is sacrificed ^βfor us ^β:

8 Therefore ^olet us keep || the feast, ^{not} with old leaven, neither ^gwith the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in ^{an} epistle ^{not} to company with fornicators:

10 ^{Yet} ⁵not altogether with the fornicators ^{of} this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go ^{out} of the world.

12 For what have I to do to judge ² them also that are without? ² do not ye judge ² them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore ⁶ put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The Corinthians must not vex their brethren, in going to law with them: 6 especially under infidels. 9 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 15 Our bodies are the members of Christ, 19 and temples of the Holy Ghost, 16, 17 They must not therefore be defiled.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that ^a the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged ¹ by you, are ye unworthy ² to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall ^b judge angels? ³ how much more ⁴ things that pertain to this life?

4 ^c If then ye ⁵ have judgments of ⁴ things pertaining to this life, ⁶ set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. 7 Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 ⁸ Now therefore there is ⁹ utterly a ¹⁰ fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. ^d Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, ^e and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: ^f neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were ^g some of you: ^h but ye ¹¹ are washed, but ye ¹² are sanctified, but ye ¹² are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and ¹³ by the Spirit of our God.

12 ⁱ All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not ^j expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 ^k Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body ^l is not for fornication, but ¹ for the Lord; ^m and the Lord for the body.

14 And ⁿ God hath both raised up the Lord, and ^o will also raise up us ^o by his own power.

15 Know ye not that ^p your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then ¹⁴ take the members of Christ, and make ¹⁵ them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which ¹⁶ is joined to an harlot is one body? for ^q two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 ^r But he that ¹⁵ is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 ^s Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth ^t against his own body.

19 What? ^u know ye not that your body is ¹⁶ the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, ^v and ye are not your own?

CHAPTER 7.

2 He treateth of marriage, 4 shewing it to be a remedy against fornication: 10 and that the lord thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved. 18, 20 Every man must be content with his vocation. 25 Virginity wherefore to be embraced. 35 And for what respects we may either marry, or abstain from marrying.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: ^aIt is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, ¹to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 ^bLet the husband render unto the wife ^βdue benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 ^cDefraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to ^βfasting and ^βprayer; and come together again, that ^dSatan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 ^eBut I speak this ²by permission, ^eand not of commandment.

7 For ^fI would that all men were ^geven as I myself. But ^hevery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, ⁱIt is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But ^kif they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to ³burn.

10 And unto the married I command, ^lyet not I, but the Lord, ^mLet not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest ⁿspeak I, ⁿnot the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not ⁵put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not ⁵leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the ^βhusband: else ^owere your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us ⁶p[†] to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt ^qsave thy husband? or [†]how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 ^rBut as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And ^rso ordain I in all churches.

18 ^sIs any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcised? [†]let him not be circumcised.

19 ^tCircumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but ^uthe keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 ^vArt thou called being a ¹⁰servant? care not for it: ¹¹but if thou mayest be made free, ¹²use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a ¹⁰servant, is ^uthe Lord's ¹³†freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is ^uChrist's ¹⁰servant.

23 ^aYe ¹⁴are bought with a price; ¹⁵be not ye the ¹⁰servants of men.

24 Brethren, ^blet every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins ^cI have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one ^dthat hath obtained mercy of the Lord ^eto be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good ¹⁶for ¹⁷the present || distress, I say, ^fthat it is good for a man ¹⁸so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: ¹⁹ but I spare you.

29 But ^a this I say, brethren, the time is ²⁰ short: ²¹ it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as ²² not ^a abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without ²³ carefulness. ^k He that is unmarried careth for the things [†] that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, ^β how he may please his wife ²⁴.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin ²⁵. The unmarried woman [†] careth ^β for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his ²⁶ virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his ²⁸ virgin, doeth well.

CHAPTER 8.

1 To abstain from meats offered to idols. 8, 9 We must not abuse our Christian liberty, to the offence of our brethren: 11 but must bridle our knowledge with charity.

NOW ^a as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have ^b knowledge. ^c Knowledge puffeth up, but ¹ charity edifieth.

2 And ^d if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, ^e the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that ² [†] an idol is nothing in the world, ^g and that there is none other God but one.

CHAPTER 9.

1 He sheweth his liberty, 7 and that the minister ought to live by the gospel: 15 yet that himself hath of his own accord abstained, 18 to be either chargeable unto them, 22 or offensive unto any, in matters indifferent. 24 Our life is like unto a race.

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, ^m Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox ⁿ that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he ^o it ^p altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: ^q that ^r he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth ^s in hope should be partaker of his hope.

a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law^β, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 ¹To ¹them that are without law, as without law, (¹being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 ¹To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: ¹"I ¹am made all things to all men, ¹"that I might by all means save some.

23 And ^βthis I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof ¹²with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? ¹³o So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that ¹striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we ¹an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, ¹not as uncertainly; so ¹⁴fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 ¹But I ¹⁵keep under my body, and ¹bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have ¹⁶preached to others, I myself should be ¹⁷"a castaway.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The sacraments of the Jews ⁶are types of our's, ⁷and their punishments, ¹¹examples for us. ¹⁴We must fly from idolatry. ²¹We must not use the Lord's table the table of devils: ²⁴and in things indifferent we must have regard of our brethren.

^βMOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under ¹the cloud, and all passed through ¹the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same ¹"spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same ^{1d}spiritual drink: for they drank of ²that ¹spiritual Rock that ¹followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with ³many of them God was not well pleased: for they ^cwere overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now ⁴these things were ⁴our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as ⁵they also lusted.

7 ^oNeither be ye idolaters, as ^{were}some of them; as it is written, ^hThe people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 ⁱNeither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and ^kfell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt ^βChrist, as ¹some of them also tempted, and ^mwere destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as ⁿsome of them also murmured, and ^owere destroyed of ^pthe destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them ^βfor ¹examples: and ^qthey are written for our admonition, ^rupon whom the ends of the ⁵world are come.

12 Wherefore ¹let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such ⁶as is ¹common to man: but ¹God is faithful. ¹"who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also ²make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, ¹flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to ²wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 ^aThe cup of ⁷blessing ⁸which we bless, is it not ⁹the communion of the blood of Christ? ⁶The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

7 For a man indeed ^p ought not to cover ^q his head, forasmuch as ^r he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a || covering.

16 But * if any man seem to be contentious, we have no ⁷ such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now ^β in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in ^β the ^β church, * I hear that there be || divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For * there must be also ⁸ || heresies among you, ⁹ that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, ⁹ || this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and * another is drunken.

22 What ⁹ have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye ^α the church of God, and ^β shame || them that ¹⁰ have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For ^α I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, ^α That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, ^β Take, eat ^β: this is my body, which is ^γ broken ^γ for you: this do || in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, ¹¹ This cup is the new ¹² testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, ¹³ in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, || ye do shew the Lord's death * till he come.

27 ^γ Wherefore whosoever shall eat ^β this bread, ^γ and drink ^β this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But ⁹ let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh ^β unworthily ^β, eateth and drinketh ¹⁴ || damnation to himself, ¹⁵ not discerning the ^γ Lord's ^γ body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For ^α if we ¹⁶ would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, ^α we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man ^α hunger, let him eat at ^α home; that ye come not together unto ¹⁷ || condemnation. And the rest ^α will I set in order when ^α I come.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Spiritual gifts 4 are divers, 7 get all to profit without. 8 And to that end are diversely bestowed: 12 that by the like proportion, as the members of a natural body tend all to the 16 mutual decency, 22 service, and 26 salvation of the same body; 27 so we should do one for another, to make up the mystical body of Christ.

NOW ^α concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know ^β that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these ^α dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, ^α that no man speaking ¹ by the Spirit of God ^β calleth Jesus || accursed: and ^α that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but ¹ by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now ^f there are diversities of gifts, but ^g the same Spirit.

5 ^h And there are differences of ² || administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God ⁱ which worketh all in all.

7. ^k But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit ^l the word of wisdom; to another ^m the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 ⁿ To another faith ¹ by the same Spirit; to another ^o the gifts of healing ¹ by the same Spirit;

10 ^p To another the working of miracles; to another ^q prophecy; ^r to another discerning of spirits; to another ^s divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, ^t dividing to every man severally ^u as he will.

12 For ^v as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: ^w so also is Christ.

13 For ^x by one Spirit ⁴ are we all baptized into one body, ^a whether we be Jews or [†] Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and ^{4b} have been all made to drink ^β into ^β one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath ^c God set the members every one of them in the body, ^a as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we || bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part ⁵ which lacked:

25 That there should be no || schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ^v ye are the body of Christ, and ^f members ⁶ in particular.

28 And ^g God hath set some in the church, first ^h apostles, secondarily ⁱ prophets, thirdly teachers, after that ^k miracles, then ^l gifts of healings, ^{7m} helps, ⁸ⁿ governments, || diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all || workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But ^{9o} covet earnestly the ¹⁰ best gifts: and yet shew I unto you ^{11a} a more excellent way.

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly. seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, ⁴ thinketh no evil;

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be ⁶ prophecies, they shall ⁷ fail: whether there be tongues; they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 ⁴ For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a ⁸ child, I spake as a ⁸ child, I ⁹ understood as a ⁸ child, I ¹⁰ thought as a ⁸ child: but when I ¹⁰ became a man, I put away ¹¹ childish things.

FOLLOW after charity, and ^{1a} desire spiritual gifts, ^{5a} but rather that ye may ² prophesy.

2 For he that ³ speaketh ³ in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man ⁴ understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue ⁴ edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either ³ by ⁴ revelation, or ⁵ by knowledge, or ⁵ by prophesying, or ⁵ by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the ⁶ || sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the ⁷ battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words ⁷ easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of ⁸ voices in the world, and none of them is ⁹ without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a ¹⁰ barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a ¹⁰ barbarian unto me.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue ¹² pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: ^e I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing ^f with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that ¹³ occupieth the room of the ¹⁴ unlearned say Amen ^g at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, ^h be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice ⁱ be ye ¹⁵ children, but in understanding be ^j men.

21 ^k In the law it is ^l written, With men of other tongues ^m and other lips ⁿ will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are ¹⁶ unlearned, or unbelievers, ^o will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one ¹⁶ unlearned, he is ¹⁷ convinced of all, he is ¹⁸ judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report ^a that God is ¹⁹ in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, ^a hath a ²⁰ doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. ^b Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and ^c let ²¹ the other ²² judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, ^d let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye ²³ may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be ²⁴ comforted.

32 And ^e the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of ^f confusion, but of ^g peace, ^h as in all churches of the saints.

34 ⁱ Let your women keep ^g silence in the ²⁵ churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but ^j they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the ^k law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? ²⁶ came the word of God out from you? or came it unto ²⁷ you only?

37 ²⁷ If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, ^g let him be ignorant.

CHAPTER 15.

3 By Christ's resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection, against all such as deny the resurrection of the body, 21 The fruit, 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the changing of them, that shall be found alive at the last day.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel ¹ which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and ² wherein ye stand; ² ^{1c} By which also ye ² are saved, if ye ³ keep in memory ⁴ what I preached unto you¹, unless ⁵ ye ³ have believed ¹ in vain.

3 For ¹ I delivered unto you first of all that ² which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins ³ according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he ⁵ rose again the third day ⁶ according to the scriptures;

5 ¹ And that he was seen of Cephas, then ² of the twelve;

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then ¹ of all the apostles.

8 ² And last of all he was seen of me also, as of ³ one born out of due time.

9 For I am ¹ the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because ² I persecuted the church of God.

10 But ³ by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but ⁴ I laboured more abundantly than they all: ⁵ yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

VAR. READ.—CHAP. 15. ¹ V. 2. So (If ye hold fast what (it. with what word) I preached) *Al. Me. De W. 13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, ¹ then ² is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then ³ is our preaching vain, and ⁴ your faith ⁵ is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God: because ¹ we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, ² if so be that ³ the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith ¹ is vain; ² ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 ¹ If ² in this life only we have ³ hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now ¹ is Christ risen from the dead, ² and become ³ the first-fruits of them that slept.

21 For ¹ since by man ² came death, ³ by man ⁴ came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But ¹ every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then ¹ cometh the end, when he ² shall have delivered up ³ the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, ¹ till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 ¹ The last enemy that shall be destroyed ² is death.

27 For he ¹ hath put all things under his feet. But ² when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

him that put all things under him,
that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized ¹³ for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And ^k why stand we in jeopardy
every hour?

31 I protest by ¹⁴ || 'your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ^m I die daily.

32 ¹⁵ If || after the manner of men ⁿ I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what ^o advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? ^p let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: ^q evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 ¹⁶ ^r Awake ¹⁷ to righteousness, and sin not; ^s for some have not the knowledge of God: ^t I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, 'How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, "that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh:
but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 ^u So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption;
it is raised in incorruption:

43 ^v It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a ¹⁸ natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. ^β There is a ¹⁸ natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam ^z was made a living ¹⁹ soul;
^a the last Adam was made ^β a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 ^c The first man is of the earth, ^d earthy: the second man is ^β the Lord ^β ^e from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: ^f and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And ^g as we have borne the image of the earthy, ^β ^h we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that ⁱ flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; ^β ^k We shall not all sleep, ^l but we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: ^m for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and ⁿ this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, ^o Death is swallowed up ²⁰ in victory.

55 ^p O death, where is thy sting?
O ^β grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and ^q the strength of sin is the law.

57 ^r But thanks be to God, which

CHAPTER 1.

3 The apostle encourageth them against troubles, by the comforts and deliverances which God had given him, as in all his afflictions, & so particularly in his late danger in Asia. 12 And calling both his own conscience and their's to witness of his sincere manner of preaching the immutable truth of the gospel, 15 he excuseth his not coming to them, as proceeding not of lightness, but of his lenity towards them.

PAUL, ^a an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, ^b with all the saints which are in all Achaia :

2 ^c Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ^d Blessed be ^e God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our ^f tribulation, that we may be able to ^g comfort them which are in any ^h trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as ⁱ the sufferings of Christ abound ^j in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, ^k it is for your consolation and salvation, ^l which ^m is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, ⁿ it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast ^o, knowing, that ^p as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so ^q shall ye be also of the ^r consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of ^s our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, inasmuch that we despaired even of life:

"according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But ¹⁶as God is true, our ¹⁷word toward you ¹⁸was not yea and nay.

19 For ¹⁹the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, ²⁰even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, ²¹but ²²in him was yea.

20 For ²⁰all the promises of God in him are yea, ²¹and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you ²¹in Christ, and ²²hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who ²³hath also sealed us, and ²⁴given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover ²⁴I call God ²⁵to a record upon my soul, ²⁶that to spare you I came ²⁷not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for ²⁵that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for ²⁶by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Having shewed the reason why he came not to them, ²he reproveth them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated person, ³then as himself also upon his true repentance had forgiven him, ⁴declaring withal why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, ⁵and the happy success which God gave to his preaching in all places.

BUT I determined this ¹with myself, ²that I would not ³come again to you in ⁴heaviness.

2 For if I make you ²sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made ²sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, ⁴I should have ⁵sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; ⁶having confidence in you all, that my joy is ⁷the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears: ⁵not that ye should be ⁶grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But ⁶if any have caused ⁷grief, he hath not ⁸grieved me, ⁹but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this [punishment, which was inflicted ⁷of many.

7 So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch ⁸sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would ⁹confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know ¹⁰the proof of you, ¹¹whether ye be ¹²obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I ¹¹forgave any thing, ¹²to whom I ¹³forgave it, for your sakes ¹⁴forgave I it ¹⁵in the person of Christ;

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, ¹³when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and ¹⁴a door was opened unto me ¹⁵of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always ¹⁵causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest ¹⁶the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

16 ^aTo the one we are ¹³the savour ^β of death unto death; and to the other ¹³the savour ^β of life unto life. And ^rwho is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as ¹⁴many, which ¹⁵|| ^scorrupt the word of God: but as ^tof sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we || in Christ.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Lest their false teachers should charge him with vainglory, he sheweth the faith and graces of the Corinthians to be a sufficient commendation of his ministry. 6 Whereupon entering a comparison between the ministers of the law and of the gospel, 12 he proveth that his ministry is so far the more excellent, as the gospel of life and liberty is more glorious than the law of condemnation.

DO ^awe begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, ^bepistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 ^cYe are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be ¹the epistle of Christ ^aministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not ^ein tables of stone, but ^fin ^βfleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 ^gNot that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing ²as of ourselves; but ^hour sufficiency is ³of God;

6 Who also ⁴hath made us able ⁱministers of ⁵the new testament; ⁶not ^lof the letter, but of the spirit:
for ^mthe letter killeth, ⁿbut the spirit ^ogiveth life.

7 But if ^pthe ministration of death, ^β^rwritten and engraven in stones, was glorious, ^qso that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory ^swas to be done away:

8 How shall not ^rthe ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation ^βbe glory, much more doth the ministration ^aof righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious ⁹had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which ¹⁰is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, ^twe use great || plainness of speech:

13 ¹¹And not as Moses, ^uwhich put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel ¹²could not stedfastly look to ^vthe end of that which ¹³is abolished:

14 But ^wtheir minds were ¹⁴blinded:
for until this day ¹⁵remaineth the same vail untaken away ¹⁶in the reading of ¹⁷the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, ¹⁸the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless ¹⁹when it shall turn to the Lord, ^athe vail shall be taken away.

17 Now ^bthe Lord is ²⁰that Spirit:
and where the Spirit of the Lord is,
there is liberty.

18 But we all, with ²¹open face
²²beholding ^cas in a glass ^dthe glory

1 He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the gospel, 7 and how the troubles and persecutions which he early endured for the same did redound to the praise of God's power, 12 to the benefit of the church, 16 and to the apostle's own eternal glory.

THEREFORE seeing we have ^athis ministry ^bas we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of [†]dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, ^cnor ^dhandling the word of God deceitfully; but ^dby manifestation of the truth ^ecommending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

4 In whom ^lthe god of this ^mworld ⁿhath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest ^othe light of ^pthe glorious gospel of Christ, ^qwho is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 ^rFor we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus ^sthe Lord; and ^tourselves ^uyour servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, ^vwho ^wcommanded the light to shine out of darkness, ^xhath ^yshined in our hearts, to ^zgive ^athe light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in ^bearthen vessels, ^cthat the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 ^dWe are ^etroubled on every side, yet not distressed; ^fwe are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 ^gPersecuted, but not forsaken; ^hcast down, but not destroyed;

10 ⁱAlways bearing about in the body the ^jdying of the Lord Jesus.

^kthat the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live ^lare ^malways delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then ⁿdeath worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having ^othe same spirit of faith, according as it is written, ^pI believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that ^qhe which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also ^rby Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For ^sall things ^tare for your sakes, ^uthat ^vthe abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man ^wperish, yet ^xthe inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For ^your light affliction, which is but for a moment, ^zworketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 ^aWhile we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen ^bare temporal; but the things which are not seen ^care eternal.

CHAPTER 5.

1 That in his assured hope of immortal glory, 9 and in expectation of it, and of the general judgment, he laboureth to keep a good conscience, 12 not that he may herein boast of himself, 14 but as one that, having received life from Christ, endeavoureth to live as a new creature to Christ only, 18 and by his ministry of reconciliation to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

FOR we know that if ^aour earthly ^bhouse of ^cthis tabernacle ^dwere dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this ^ewe groan, earnestly desiring ^fto be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 ⁴If so be that ^cbeing clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this ⁵tabernacle do groan, being burdened; ⁶not for that we would be unclothed, but ^aclothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now ^ehe that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also ^fhath given unto us ⁷the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always ⁸confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For ⁹we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and ^hwill-ing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we ⁹labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 ⁱFor we must all ¹⁰appear before the judgment seat of Christ; ^kthat every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore ¹¹the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but ^mwe are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For ⁿwe commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion ^oto glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory ⁺in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For ^pwhether we ¹²be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that ^qif ^rone died for all, ¹³then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, ^rthat

they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which ¹⁴died for them, and rose again.

16 ^sWherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, ^tyet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man ^ube in Christ, ¹⁵he is ^xa new creature: ¹⁶old things are passed away; behold, ¹⁷all things are become new.

18 And ¹⁷all things are of God, ^zwho hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that ¹⁸a God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath ⁺committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ^bambassadors for Christ, as ^cthough God did beseech you by us: ¹⁹we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For ^dhe hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made ^ethe righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER 6.

1 That he hath approved himself a faithful minister of Christ, both by his exhortations, 3 and by integrity of life, 4 and by patient enduring all kinds of affliction and disgraces for the gospel. 10 Of which he speaketh the more boldly amongst them, because his heart is open to them, 13 and he expecteth the like affliction from them again, 14 exhorting to flee the society and pollutions of idolaters, as being themselves temples of the living God.

WE then, as ^aworkers together with him, ^bbeseech you also ^cthat ye ¹receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, ^dI have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 ^eGiving no ²offence in any thing, that ³the ministry be not blamed:

HAVING ¹ therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 ¹ Receive us; we ² have wronged no man, we have ³ corrupted no man, ⁴ we have defrauded no man.

6 Nevertheless ⁹ God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by ¹⁰ the coming of Titus;

10 For ^agodly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation ⁷not to be repented of: ^obut the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, ^pbut that ^βour care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were ^βcomforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit ^qwas refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I ^sam not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, ^βwhich I made before Titus, ^sis found a truth.

15 And his [†]inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth ^rthe obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

CHAPTER 9.

1 He yieldeth the reason why, though he knew their forwardness, yet he sent Titus and his brethren beforehand. 6 And he proceedeth in stirring them up to a bountiful alms, as being led a kind of sowing of seed, 19 which shall return a great increase to them, 13 and occasion a great sacrifice of thanksgivings unto God.

FOR as touching ^a the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know ^b the forwardness of your mind, ^c for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that ^d Achaia was ready a year ago; and ^e your zeal hath provoked ² very many.

3 ^e Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should ³ be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ⁴ ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your ⁵ + bounty, ^β || whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of ⁵ bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 ^f But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth ⁶ bountifully shall reap also ⁶ bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, ^g so let him give; ^g not grudgingly, or of necessity: for ^h God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 ⁱ And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all ⁷ sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

1 Against the false apostles, who disgraced the weakness of his person and bodily presence, he setteth out the spiritual might and authority, with which he is armed against all adversary powers, 7 assuring them that at his coming he will be found as mighty in word, as he is now in writing being absent, 12 and without taxing them for reaching out themselves beyond their compass, and counting themselves into other men's labours.

NOW ^α I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, ^β who ¹ || in presence am ² base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, ^ε that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which || think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (^δ For the weapons ^ε of our warfare are not carnal, but ^ζ mighty ³ || through God ^θ to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 ^α Casting down ⁴ || imaginations, and every high thing that ^ε exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 ^δ And ^ε having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when ^κ your obedience is fulfilled.

7 ¹¹ Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? ^μ If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are ^ν we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more ^ο of our authority, which the Lord hath given us ^σ for edification, and not for your destruction, ^π I ⁹ should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, ^τ say they, are weighty and powerful; but ^α his bodily presence is weak, and his ^γ speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 ^ε For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, || are not wise.

13 ^ε But we will not boast ¹⁰ of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the ¹¹ || rule which God ¹² hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: ^α for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

CHAPTER 11.

1 Out of his jealousy over the Corinthians, who seemed to make more account of the false apostles than of him, he entereth into a forced commendation of himself, 5 of his equality with the chief apostles, 7 of his preaching the gospel to them freely, and without any their charge, 13 shewing that he was not inferior to those deceitful workers in any legal prerogative, 23 and in the service of Christ, and in all kind of sufferings for his ministry, far superior.

WOULD to God ye could ^β bear with me a little in ^a my folly :

¹ and indeed || bear with me.

2 For I am ^{2 β} jealous over you with ³ godly ² jealousy : for ^c I have ⁴ espoused you to one husband, ^d that I may present you ^e as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as ^f the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds ^g should be corrupted from the ^β simplicity that is ⁵ in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or ^h another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye ^β might well bear || with him.

5 For I ⁶ suppose ⁱ I ⁷ was not a whit behind ⁸ the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though ^k I be rude in speech, yet not ^l in knowledge ; but ^m we ^β have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence ⁿ in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God ⁹ freely ?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, ^o I was chargeable to no man : for that which was lacking to me ^p the brethren ¹⁰ which came from Macedonia supplied : and in all things I ¹¹ have kept myself ^q from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 ^r As the truth of Christ is in me, ^s no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore ? ^t because I love you not ? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, ^u that I may cut off ¹² occasion from them which desire occasion ; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such ^v are false apostles, ^w deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel ; for Satan himself ¹³ is transformed into ^x an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also ¹⁴ be transformed as the ^y ministers of righteousness ; ^b whose end shall be according to their works.

16 ^c I say again. Let no man think me a fool ; if otherwise, yet as a fool || receive me, that ¹⁵ I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, ^d I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, ^e in this ¹⁶ confidence of boasting.

18 ^f Seeing that many ¹⁷ glory after the flesh, I will ¹⁷ glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, ^g seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, ^h if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man ¹⁸ take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

† as though we had been weak. Howbeit ^awhereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? ⁱso am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as ²⁰a fool) ²¹I am more; ^min labours more abundant, ⁿin stripes ²²above measure, in prisons more frequent, ^oin deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I ^pforty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I ^qbeaten with rods, ^ronce was I stoned, thrice I ^ssuffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, ^tin perils by mine own countrymen, ^uin perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, ^vin watchings often, ^win hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Beside ²³those things that are without, ^βthat which cometh upon me daily, ^zthe care of all the churches.

29 ^aWho is weak, and I am not weak? who is ²⁴offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, ^bI will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 ^cThe God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^dwhich is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 ^eIn Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12.

1 For commending of his apostleship, though he might glory of his wonderful revelations, ⁹yet he rather chooseth to glory of his infirmities, ¹¹blaming them for forcing him to this vain boasting. ¹⁴He promiseth to come to them again: but yet altogether in the affection of a father, ²⁰although he seareth he shall to his grief find many offenders, and public disorders there.

^βIT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory^β. †I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I ¹knew a man ^ain Christ ²above fourteen years ago², (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one ^bcaught up to the third heaven.

3 And I ¹knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into ^cparadise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not ^{||}lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: ^dyet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For ³e though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth ⁴of me.

7 ^βAnd lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a ⁵f thorn ⁶in the flesh, ^gthe ⁷messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 ^hFor ⁸this thing ⁸I besought the Lord thrice, that ⁹it might depart from me.

9 And he ¹⁰said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for ^βmy ^βstrength is made perfect in ¹¹weakness. Most gladly therefore ⁱwill I rather glory in my ¹¹infirmities, ^kthat the power of Christ may ¹²rest upon me.

10 Therefore ^lI take pleasure in ¹¹infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: ^mfor when I am ¹¹weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become ^aa fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for ⁱⁿ nothing ¹³am I behind ¹⁴the very chiefest apostles, though ¹⁵I be nothing.

12 ¹Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, ²in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 ³For what is it wherein ye ¹⁵were inferior to other churches, except it be that ⁴I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me ⁵this wrong.

14 ⁶Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for ⁷I seek not your's, but you: ⁸for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And ⁹I will very gladly spend and ¹⁶be spent ^afor [†]you; ^βthough ^bthe more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 ¹⁷But be it so, ¹⁸c I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile ¹⁷.

17 ^dDid I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 ^eI desired Titus, and with him I sent ¹⁹a ^fbrother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 ^βAgain, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? ^hwe speak before God in Christ: ⁱbut we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that ^kI shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, ²⁰strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 ²¹And lest, when I come again, my God ¹will humble me ²¹among you, and that I shall bewail many ^mwhich have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and ⁿfornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER 13.

1 He threateneth severity, and the power of his apostleship against obstinate sinners. 5 And advising them to a trial of their faith, 7 and to a reformation of their sins before his coming, 11 he concludeth his epistle with a general exhortation and a prayer.

THIS is ^athe third time I am coming to you. ^bIn the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 ¹c I told you before, and ²foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now ^βI write ^βto them ^dwhich heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, ^eI will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ ^fspeaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty ^gin you.

4 ^hFor though he was crucified through weakness, yet ⁱhe liveth by the power of God. For ^kwe also are weak ^β|| in him ^β, but we shall live with him by the power of God ^γ3 to-ward you ^γ.

5 ¹Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, ^mhow that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be ⁿreprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not ¹reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is ^βhonest, though ^owe be as ⁴reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, ^pwhen we are weak, and ye are strong: and ^qthis also we wish, ^qeven your ²perfection.

*THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

GALATIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

6 He wondereth that they have so soon left him and the gospel, & accurseth those that preach any other gospel than he did. 11 He learned the gospel not of men, but of God: 14 and sheweth what he was before his calling, 17 and what he did presently after it.

PAUL, an apostle, (^anot of men, neither by man, but ^bby Jesus Christ, and God the Father, ^cwho raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren ^dwhich are with me, ^eunto the churches of Galatia:

3 ^fGrace be to you and peace from ^βGod the Father, and ^gfrom our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 ^hWho gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us ^kfrom this ¹present evil ²world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 ³To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ⁴ye are so soon removed ⁱfrom him that called you ⁵into the grace of Christ ⁶unto another gospel:

7 ^kWhich is not another; but there be some ¹that ⁷trouble you, and ^swould pervert the gospel of Christ ⁶.

8 But though ^mwe, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you ⁹than that which we ¹⁰have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you ^{9a}than that ye ¹¹have received, let him be accursed.

10 For ^ado I now ¹²^ppersuade men, or God [?] or ^qdo I seek to please men [?] for if I yet pleased men, ¹³I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 ^βBut I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For ¹I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but ⁱby the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that ^ubeyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and ^xwasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many ¹⁴my ⁺equals in mine own nation, ^ybeing more exceedingly zealous ^zof the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, ^awho ¹⁵separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 ^bTo reveal his Son in me, that ^cI might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with ^dflesh and blood:

17 Neither ^βwent I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years ^cI || went up to Jerusalem to ¹⁶see ^βPeter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But ^γother of the apostles saw I none, ¹⁷save ^γJames ¹⁸the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, ^hbehold, before God, I lie not.

21 ⁱAfterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And ¹⁹was unknown by face ^kunto the churches of Judæa which ^lwere in Christ:

23 But they ²⁰had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once ²¹he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He sheweth when he went up again to Jerusalem, and for what purpose: 3 and that Titus was not circumcised: 11 and that he resisted Peter, and told him the reason, 14 why he and other, being Jews, do believe in Christ to be justified by faith, and not by works: 20 and that they live not in sin, who are so justified.

THEN ¹fourteen years after ^aI went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up ²by revelation, ^band communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but || privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means ^cI ³should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But ¹neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 ⁵And that because of ^dfalse brethren

unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our ^eliberty which we have in Christ Jesus, ^fthat they might bring us into bondage:

5 ^gTo whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour: that ^hthe truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these ^hwho ⁶seemed to be somewhat, (ⁱ whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: ^jGod accepteth no man's person: ^kfor they who ⁶seemed to be somewhat ⁹in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, ^lwhen they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision ^mwas committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that ¹⁰wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, ⁿthe same ¹¹was ²mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be ^ppillars, perceived ^qthe grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas ¹²the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; ^rthe same which I also was forward to do.

11 ^sBut when ^βPeter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because ¹³he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, ^the did eat with the Gentiles; but when ^βthey were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly ¹⁴according to ^uthe truth of the gospel, I said unto ^βPeter ²before them all, ^vIf thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 ^z We who are Jews by nature, and not ^a sinners ¹⁵ of the Gentiles, 16 ^β Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, ¹⁶ but ^c by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by ¹⁷ the works of the law: for ^d by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found ^e sinners, ^{is} therefore Christ the minister of sin? ¹⁸ God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I ¹⁹ make myself a transgressor.

19 For I ^f through ²⁰ the law ²¹ I am dead to the law, that I might ^h live unto God.

20 ²² I am ⁱ crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh ^k I live ²³ by the faith ^β of the Son of God, ^l who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for ^m if righteousness come by ²⁰ the law, then Christ ²⁴ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3.

1 He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and hung upon the law? 6 They that believe are justified, 9 and blessed with Abraham. 10 And this he sheweth by many reasons.

O FOOLISH Galatians, ^a who hath bewitched you, ^β that ye should not obey ^b the truth ^β, before whose eyes Jesus Christ ¹ hath been evidently set forth, crucified ^γ among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye ^c the Spirit by ² the works of the law, ^d or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? ^e having begun in the Spirit, are ye now ³ made perfect by ^f the flesh?

4 ^g Have ye suffered || so many things in vain? ^h if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore ⁱ that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, ^{doeth he} it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as ^j Abraham believed God, and it was || accounted to him for righteousness.

7 ^k Know ye therefore that ^k they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And ^l the scripture, foreseeing that God ⁷ would justify the heathen through faith, ⁸ preached before the gospel unto Abraham, ^{saying,} ^m In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, ⁿ Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But ^o that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, ^{it is} evident: for, ⁹ ² The just shall live by faith.

12 And ^p the law is not of faith: but, ⁷ The man that doeth ¹⁰ them shall live in them.

13 ^q Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, ^r Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 ^s That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles ¹¹ through Jesus Christ; that we might receive ^t the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; ^u Though it be but a man's ¹² || covenant, yet ^{if it be} confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is a Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God β in Christ β , the law, β which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, ϵ that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if α the inheritance be of the law, α it is no more of promise: but God γ gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? γ It was added γ because of transgressions, till θ the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was γ ordained γ by angels in the hand δ of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, κ but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: γ for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But μ the scripture hath concluded γ all under sin, θ that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, γ we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore ρ the law γ was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, γ that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a γ schoolmaster.

26 For ye τ are all γ the children of God by faith γ in Christ Jesus.

27 For α as many of you as γ have been baptized into Christ γ have put on Christ.

28 There γ is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all γ one in Christ Jesus.

29 And γ if ye be γ Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and γ heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4.

1 We were under the law till Christ came, as the heir is under his guardian till he be of age. 5 But Christ freed us from the law: 7 therefore we are servants no longer to it. 14 He remembreth their good will to him, and his to them, 22 and sheweth that we are the sons of Abraham by the free-woman.

1 NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is γ a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under γ tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, α were in bondage γ under the elements of the world:

4 But β when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, β made δ of a woman, ϵ made under δ the δ law,

5 γ To redeem them that were under the law, θ that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And γ because ye are sons, God γ hath sent forth γ the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; γ and if a son, then β an heir of God through Christ β .

8 Howbeit then, κ when ye knew not God, γ ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, μ after that ye have known God, or rather are γ known of God, α how turn ye γ again to θ the weak and beggarly γ elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye γ observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, γ lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 ¹² Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ¹³ ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how ¹⁴ through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you ¹⁵ at the first.

14 And ¹⁶ my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me ¹⁷ as an angel of God, ¹⁸ even as Christ Jesus.

15 || Where is then ¹⁹ the blessedness ye spake of ²⁰ for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, ¹⁷ because I tell you the truth?

17 ¹⁸ They ¹⁹ zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude || you, that ye might affect them.

18 ¹⁷ But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing ¹⁸, and not only when I am present with you.

19 ¹⁶ My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you ¹⁷,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change ²¹ my voice; for || I ²² stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under ²² the ²³ law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, ²³ the one by ²⁴ a bondmaid, ²⁵ the other by ²⁶ a freewoman.

23 But he ²⁷ who was of the bondwoman ²⁸ was born after the flesh; ²⁹ but he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for ²⁵ these are ²⁶ the ²⁷ two || covenants;

the one from the mount ²⁸ † Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 ²⁹ For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and || answereth to Jerusalem which now is, ³⁰ and is in bondage with her children.

26 But ³¹ Jerusalem which is above is free, which is ³² the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, ³³ Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: ³⁴ for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now ³⁵ we, brethren, as Isaac was, are ³⁶ the children of promise.

29 But as then ³⁷ he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, ³⁸ even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith ³⁹ the scripture? ⁴⁰ Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for ⁴¹ the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, ⁴² but of the free.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He moveth them to stand in their liberty, 3 and not to observe circumcision: 13 but rather love, which is the sum of the law. 19 He reckoneth up the works of the flesh, 22 and the fruits of the Spirit, 25 and exhorteth to walk in the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in ¹ the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and ² be not entangled again ³ with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that ⁴ if ye ⁵ be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 ⁶ For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, ⁷ that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 ⁸ Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ^f ye are fallen from grace.

⁵ For we ⁴ through the Spirit ^g wait for the hope ³ of righteousness ^h by faith.

⁶ For ^k in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but ⁱ faith ^j which worketh by love.

⁷ Ye ^k did run well; ^l || who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

⁸ This persuasion cometh not of him ^m that calleth you.

⁹ A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

¹⁰ I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but ⁿ he that troubleth you ^o shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

¹¹ And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, ^p why do I yet suffer persecution? then is ^q the offence of the cross ^r ceased.

¹² I would ^s ye were even cut off ^t which trouble you.

¹³ For, brethren, ye ^u have been called ^v unto liberty; only ^w use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but ^x by love serve one another.

¹⁴ For ^y all the law ^z is fulfilled in one word, even in this: ^a Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

¹⁵ But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

¹⁶ This I say then, ^c Walk ^b in the Spirit, and ^d ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

¹⁷ For ^e the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: ^f and these are contrary the one to the other: ^g so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

¹⁸ But ^h if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

¹⁹ Now ⁱ the works of the flesh are manifest, ^j which are these; ^k Adultery ^l, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

²⁰ Idolatry, ^m witchcraft, hatred, ⁿ variance, emulations, wrath, ^o strife, ^p seditions, heresies,

²¹ Envyings, ^q murders ^r, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I ^s tell you before, as I have also ^t told you in time past, that ^u they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

²² But ^v the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, ^w gentleness, ^x goodness, ^y faith,

²³ Meekness, temperance: ^z against ^a such there is no law.

²⁴ And they that are Christ's ^b have crucified the flesh with the ^c affections and lusts.

²⁵ If we live ^d in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

²⁶ Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6.

¹ He reareth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath sinned, ² and to bear one another's burden: ³ to be liberal to their teachers, ⁴ and not weary of well doing. ⁵ He sheweth what they intend that preach circumcision. ⁶ He glorieth in nothing, save in the cross of Christ.

BRETHREN, ^a || if a man ¹ be overtaken in a fault, ye ^b which are spiritual, restore such an one ^c in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, ^d lest thou also be tempted.

² Bear ye one another's burdens, and so ^e fulfil ^f the law of Christ.

³ For ^g if a man think himself to be something, when ^h he is nothing, he ⁱ deceiveth himself.

⁴ But ^j let every man ^k prove his own work, and then shall he ^l have rejoicing in himself alone, and ^m not in another.

⁵ For every man shall bear his own ⁿ burden.

⁶ Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ He exhorteth to unity, ² and denounceth that God therefore giveth divers ³ gifts unto men, that his church might be ⁴ edified, and ⁵ we grown up in Christ. ⁶ He calleth them from the impurity of the Gentiles, ⁷ to put on the new man, ⁸ to cast off lying, and ⁹ corrupt communication.

⁶ One God and Father of all, who is ⁷ above all, and ⁸ through all, and in ⁹ β you ¹⁰ all.

⁷ But ⁸ unto every one of us ⁹ is given ¹⁰ grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

⁸ Wherefore ⁹ he saith, ¹⁰ When he ascended up on high, ¹¹ he ¹² led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 ^a (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended ^β first ^β into ⁸ the lower parts of the earth ?

10 He that descended is the same also ^r that ascended up far above all heavens, ^a that he might ⁹ || fill all things.)

11 ² And ¹⁰ he gave ¹¹ some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, ^a evangelists; and some, ^r pastors ¹¹ and ^r teachers;

12 ¹² For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, ^a for the edifying of ^β the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come ¹³ || in the unity of the faith, ^c and of the ¹⁴ knowledge of the Son of God, unto ^a a perfect man, unto the measure of the ¹⁵ || stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more ^c children, ^f tossed to and fro, and carried about with every ^g wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, ¹⁶ ^a whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But ¹⁷ ⁱ || speaking the truth ¹⁸ in love, ^a may grow up into him in all things, ⁱ which is the head, even Christ:

16 ^m From whom the whole body fitly joined together and ¹⁹ compacted ²⁰ by that which every joint ¹⁹ supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every ^β part, maketh ²¹ increase of the body unto the ²² edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ^a ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, ^o in the vanity of their mind,

18 ^r Having the understanding darkened, ^a being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the ²³ ^r || blindness of their heart:

19 ^a Who being past feeling ²⁴ ^a have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness ²⁵ with greediness.

20 But ye ²⁶ have not so learned Christ;

21 ²⁷ ^a If so be that ye ²⁸ have heard ²⁹ him, and ²⁸ have been taught ³⁰ by ²⁹ him, ^β as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye ^a put off concerning ³¹ the former conversation ^a the old man, which ³² is corrupt according to the ³³ deceitful lusts;

23 And ^a be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye ^β put on the new man, which after God ³⁴ ^c is created in righteousness and ³⁵ || true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, ^a speak every man truth with his neighbour: for ^c we are members one of another.

26 ³⁶ ^β Be ye angry, and sin not ³⁶: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 ^a Neither give ³⁷ place to the devil.

28 Let ³⁸ him that stole steal no more: but rather ^a let him labour, working with ^{his} hands the thing which is good, that he may have || to give ^a to him that needeth.

29 ^a Let no ³⁹ corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but ^a that which is good || to ⁴⁰ the use of edifying, ^m that it may minister ⁴¹ grace unto the hearers.

2 After general exhortations, to love, 3 to fly fornication, 4 and all uncleanness, 7 not to converse with the wicked, 15 to walk warily, and to be 18 filled with the Spirit, 22 he descendeth to the particular duties, how wives ought to obey their husbands, 25 and husbands ought to love their wives, 32 even as Christ doth his church.

BE ^aye therefore followers of God, ^bas ¹dear children;

2 And ^bwalk in love, ^cas Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God ^dfor a sweetsmelling savour.

3 But ^efornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, ^flet it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 ^gNeither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, ^hwhich are not ²convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that ⁱno whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, ^kwho is an idolater, ^lhath any inheritance in the kingdom ³of Christ and of God.

6 ^mLet no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things ⁿcometh the wrath of God ^oupon the children of ^{||}disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 ^pFor ye were ⁴sometimes darkness, but now ^qare ye light in the Lord: walk as ^rchildren of light:

14 Wherefore ^zhe saith, ^aAwake thou that sleepest, and ^carise from the dead, and ^βChrist shall give thee light.

as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

²⁶ That he might sanctify and cleans^e it ² with ¹⁶ the washing of water ¹⁷ ^a by the word,

²⁷ ^b That he might ^β present it to himself a glorious church, ^c not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; ^d but that it should be holy and without blemish.

²⁸ So ought men to love ¹⁸ their wives ¹⁹ as their own bodies. He that loveth ¹⁸ his wife loveth himself.

²⁹ For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth
it, even as ^β the Lord the church:

³⁰ For ^e we are members of his body,
^β of his flesh, and of his bones ^β.

³¹ ^f For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they ^g two shall ²⁰ be one flesh.

³² ²¹ This is a great mystery: but ²² I speak concerning Christ and the church.

³³ Nevertheless ^h let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she ²³ reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The duty of children towards their parents, 5 of servants towards their masters. 10 Our life is a warfare, 12 not only against flesh and blood, but also spiritual enemies. 13 The complete armour of a Christian, 18 and how it ought to be used. 21 Tychicus is commended.

CHILDREN, ^a obey your parents
^β in the Lord ^β: for this is right.

² ^b Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment ¹ with promise;

³ That it may be with thee, and thou ² mayest live long on ³ the earth.

⁴ And, ^c ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but ^d bring them up in the ⁴ nurture and admonition of the Lord.

⁵ ^e Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, ^f with fear and trembling, ^g in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

⁶ ^h Not with eyeservice, as menpleas-ers; but as the ² servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

⁷ With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

⁸ ⁱ Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, ^k whether he be bond or free.

⁹ And, ye ^l masters, do the same things unto them, ^{||} ^m forbearing threatening: knowing that ^β ^{||} ⁿ your Master also is in heaven; ^o neither is there respect of persons with him.

¹⁰ ^p Finally, ^β my ^β brethren, ⁷ be strong in the Lord, and ^q in the power of his might.

¹¹ ^r Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

¹² For we wrestle not against ⁺ flesh and blood, but against ⁺ principalities, against powers, against ⁺ the ⁸ rulers of ^β the darkness of this world ^β, against ⁹ ^{||} spiritual wickedness in ^{||} high places.

¹³ ⁺ Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand ⁺ in the evil day,
and ^{||} having ¹⁰ done all, to stand.

¹⁴ Stand therefore, ⁺ having your loins girt about with truth, and ⁺ having on the breastplate of righteousness;

¹⁵ ^a And your feet shod with the ¹¹ preparation of the gospel of peace;

¹⁶ ^β Above all, taking ^β the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of ¹² the wicked.

CHAPTER 1.

3 He testifieth his thankfulness to God, and his love toward them, for the fruits of their faith, and fellowship in his sufferings, 9 daily praying to him for their increase in grace: 12 he sheweth what good the faith of Christ had received by his troubles at Rome, 21 and how ready he is to glorify Christ either by his life or death, 27 exhorting them to unity, 28 and to fortitude in persecution.

PAUL and ¹Timotheus, ²the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints ^ain Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the ³bishops and deacons:

2 ^b Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every
|| remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy.

5 ^d For your fellowship ^e in the gospel from the first day until now :

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you || will ⁵ perform it ^f until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because ⁶ || I have you ^g in my heart; inasmuch as both in ^h my bonds, and in 'the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ^k ye all are ⁷ || partakers of my grace.

8 For 'God is my record, "how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, "that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all ⁹ judgment ;

10 That ^a ye may ¹⁰ approve things that ^{||} are excellent; ^p that ye may be ¹¹ sincere and ¹² without offence ¹³ till

18 What then? ¹⁹ notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in in do rejoice, yea, and ²¹ will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn

CHAPTER 2.

1 He exhorteth them to unity, and to all humbleness exaltation: 12 to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation, that they be as lights to the wicked world, 16 and comforts to him their apostle, who is now ready to be offered up to God. 19 He hopeth to send Timothy to them, whom he greatly com-mendeth, 25 as Epaphroditus also, whom he presently sendeth to them.

3⁵ Let nothing be done through 6 strife or vainglory; but in low- ness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4⁹ Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5⁴ Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who, ⁷ being in the form of God, k thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7¹ But ⁹ made himself of no reputation, ¹⁰ and took upon him the form m of a servant, and ⁿ was made in the || likeness of men:

8¹¹ And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and ^o became obedient ¹² unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also ¹³ p hath highly exalted him, and ^q given him ^β a name which is above every name:

10^r That ¹⁴ at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of ¹⁵ things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And ^t that every tongue should 16 confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, ^u as ye have always obeyed, ¹⁷ not ^β as ^β in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with ^v fear and trembling.

13 For ^w it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do ¹⁸ of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things ^x without murmur-ings and ¹⁹ disputings:

15 That ye may ²⁰ be blameless and

21^{||} harmless, ^a the sons of God, ^β without rebuke, ^b in the midst of ^c a crooked and perverse ²² nation, among whom
|| ^d ye ²³ shine as ²⁴ lights in the world;
16 ²⁵ Holding forth the word of life;
that ²⁶ I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that ²⁷ I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if ²⁸ I ²⁹ be ³⁰ offered upon the sacrifice ^h and ³¹ service of your faith, ³² I joy, and ³³ rejoice with you all.

18 ³⁴ For the same cause also do ye joy, and ³⁵ rejoice with me.

19^{||} But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send ^k Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort,
when I know your state.

20 For I have no man ^l || likeminded, who will ³³ naturally care for your state.

21 For ³⁴ all ^m seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know ³⁵ the proof of him, ⁿ that, as a son ³⁶ with the father, he hath served with me ³⁷ in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send ³⁸ presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But ^o I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you ^p Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and ^q fellow-soldier, ^r but your ³⁰ messenger, and ³⁰ ^h he that ministered to my wants.

26^r For he ⁴¹ longed after you all, and ⁴² was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

14 ^c In whom we ^β have redemption through his blood, even the for-givenness of sins:

15 Who is ^θ the image of the invisible God, ^θ the ¹⁴ firstborn of ¹⁵ every creature:

16 For ¹⁶ ^k by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or ^l dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created ¹⁷ ^k by him, and for him:

17 And he ¹⁸ is before all things, and ¹⁹ by him all things ²⁰ consist.

18 And ^m he is the head of the body,
the church: who is the beginning, ⁿ the firstborn from the dead; that ²¹ ^{||} in all things he might have the preeminence.

19 For ²² it pleased the Father that ^o in him should all fulness dwell;

20 And, ^{||} ^p having made peace through the blood of his cross, ^q by him to reconcile ^r all things unto ²³ himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, ^s that were sometime alienated and ^t enemies ^{||} in your mind ^t by wicked works, yet now ^β hath he reconciled

22 ^u In the body of his flesh through ²⁵ death, ^x to present you holy and ²⁶ unblameable and unreprouvable ²⁶ in his sight:

23 If ye continue in ²⁷ the faith
^y grounded and settled, and ²⁸ be ^z not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, ^a and which was preached ^δ to every creature which is under heaven; ^c whereof I Paul ²⁹ am made a minister;

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings ^c for you, and fill up ^d that which is ³⁰ behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for ^θ his body's sake, which is the church:

25 Whereof I ²⁹ am made a minister, according to ⁴ the ³¹ dispensation of God which ³² is given to me for you,
^{||} to ³³ fulfil the word of God;

26 Even ¹ the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, ^k but now is made manifest to his saints:

27 To whom God ³⁴ would make known what is ^m the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ ³⁵ in you,
ⁿ the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, ^o warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; ^p that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

29 Whereunto I also labour, ³⁶ ^r striving ^q according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He still exhorteth them to be constant in Christ,
8 to beware of philosophy, and vain traditions, 18 worshipping of angels, 20 and legal ceremonies, which are ended in Christ.

FOR I would that ye knew what great ¹ ^{||} ^a conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That their hearts might be ² comforted, ^β being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the ³ full assurance of understanding, ^d to the acknowledgment of the mystery ^β of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

21 ^a Fathers, ^β provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.
22 ^{26 a} Servants, obey ^b in all things your ²⁷ masters ^c according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing ^β God:

23 ^d And whatsoever ye do, ²⁸ do it ²⁸ heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 ^e Knowing that of the ²⁷ Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: ^f for ²⁹ ye serve the ²⁷ Lord Christ.

25 ^β But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and ^g there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, 5 to walk wisely toward them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ. 10 He saluteth them, and wisheth them all prosperity.

MASTERS ^a, give unto your ¹ servants that which is just and ² equal; knowing that ye also have a ¹ Master in heaven.

2 ^{3 b} Continue in prayer, and watch in the same ^c with thanksgiving;

3 ^d Withal praying also for us, that God would ^e open unto us a door ⁴ of utterance, to speak ^f the mystery of Christ, ^g for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 ^h Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, ⁱ redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always ^{6 k} with grace, ^l seasoned with salt, ^m that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 ⁿ All ⁷ my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, ⁸ who is a ⁸ beloved brother, and ⁹ a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord:

8 ^o Whom I ⁹ have sent unto you for ¹⁰ the same purpose, that ^β he might know your estate, and ¹¹ comfort your hearts;

9 With ^p Onesimus, ⁸ a faithful and beloved brother, who is ^{one} of you. They shall make known unto you all things which ^{are} done here.

10 ^q Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and ^{12 r} Marcus, ¹³ sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;)

11 And Jesus, which is called Justus, ¹⁴ who are of the circumcision. These only ^{are} my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

12 ^s Epaphras, who is ^{one} of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always ¹⁵ || ^t labouring fervently ¹⁵ for you in prayers, that ye may stand ^u perfect and ^β || complete in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great ^β zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

14 ^v Luke, the beloved physician, and ^w Demas, greet you.

15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and ^β Nymphas, and ^z the church which is in ^y his house.

16 And when ^a this epistle ¹⁶ is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read ¹⁷ the epistle from Laodicea.

17 And say to ^b Archippus, Take heed to ^c the ministry which thou ¹⁸ hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

18 ^d The salutation by the hand of me Paul. ^e Remember my bonds. ^f Grace be with you. ^β Amen.

*THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindful of them Saint Paul was at all times in thanksgiving, and prayer; 5 and also how well he was persuaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith, and conversion to God.

PAUL, and ^a Silvanus, and ^a Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: ^b Grace be unto you, and peace, ^β from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ ^β.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 ^a Remembering without ceasing ^c your work of faith, ^f and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of ² God and our Father;

4 Knowing, ³ brethren || beloved, ⁹ your election of God.

5 ¹ For ^a our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and ¹ in the Holy Ghost, ^k and in much ⁵ assurance; as ¹ ye know what manner of men we ⁶ were among you for your sake.

6 And ^a ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, ⁷ having received the word in much affliction, ^a with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you ⁸ sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also ^p in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of ^β us ⁹ what manner of entering in we had unto you, ^r and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

10 And ^a to wait for his Son ¹ from heaven, ^a whom he raised from the dead, ^{even} Jesus, which ⁹ delivered us ² from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2.

1 In what manner the gospel was brought and preached to the Thessalonians, and in what sort also they received it. 18 A reason is rendered both why Saint Paul was so long absent from them, and also why he was so desirous to see them.

FOR ^a yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it ¹ was not ² in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at ⁶ Philippi, ^c we were bold in our God ^a to speak unto you the gospel of God ³ with much contention.

3 ^f For our exhortation ¹ was not of ⁵ deceit, nor of ⁶ uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as ⁷ we ⁷ were allowed of God ^k to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; ⁱ not as pleasing men, but God, ^k which ⁸ trieth our hearts.

5 For ¹ neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor ^a a cloak of covetousness; ^m God is witness:

6 ^a Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor ⁹ of others, when ⁹ we might have ¹⁰ || been ^p burdensome, ^a as the apostles of Christ.

7 But ^r we ¹¹ were ^β gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, ¹² we were willing ^a to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also ^t our own ¹³ souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for ^u labouring night and day, ^{*} because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 ^y Ye are witnesses, and God also, ^z how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves ¹⁴ among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and ¹⁵ comforted and ¹⁶ charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12 ¹⁷ ^a That ye would walk worthy of God, ^b who ^β hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God ^c without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it ^a not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers ^e of the churches of God which in Judæa are in Christ Jesus: for ^f ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, ^g even as they have of the Jews:

15 ^h Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and ^β their own prophets, and ¹⁸ have persecuted us; and they please not God, ^a and are contrary to all men:

16 ⁱ Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, ^m to fill up their sins alway: ¹⁹ ⁿ for the wrath is come upon them ²⁰ to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being ²¹ taken from you for a short time ^o in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly ^p to see your face with great desire.

18 ^β Wherefore we ²² would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but ^q Satan hindered us.

19 For ^r what is our hope, or joy, or ^{*} crown of ²³ || rejoicing? Are not ²⁴ even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ ^t at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Saint Paul testifieth his great love to the Thessalonians, partly by sending Timothy unto them to strengthen and comfort them: partly by rejoicing in their well doing: 10 and partly by praying for them, and desiring a safe coming unto them.

WHEREFORE ^a when we could it good to be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent ^c Timotheus, our brother, and ^β minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to ¹ comfort you concerning your faith:

3 ^a That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that ^c we are appointed thereto.

4 ^f For verily, when we were with you, we told you ² before that ³ we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, ^g when I could no longer forbear, ⁴ I sent to know your faith, ^h lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and ⁱ our labour be in vain.

6 ^k But ⁵ now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and ⁶ charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, ¹ as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, ^m we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye ⁿ stand fast in the Lord.

9 ^o For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 ^p Night and day ^q praying exceedingly ^r that we might see your face, ^a and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now ⁷God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, || direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord ^umake you to increase and abound in love ^vone toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may ^ystablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ ^zwith all his ^asaints ^b.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth them to go on forward in all manner of godliness, 6 to live holily and justly, 9 to love one another, 11 and quietly to follow their own business: 13 and last of all to sorrow moderately for the dead. 15 And unto this last exhortation is annexed a brief description of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ to judgment.

¹FURTHERMORE then we || beseech you, brethren, and || exhort you ²by the Lord Jesus, ^athat as ye have received of us ^bhow ye ought to walk ^cand to please God^β, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is ^dthe will of God, even ^eyour sanctification, ^fthat ye should abstain from ^gfornication:

4 ^hThat every one of you should know how to ⁱpossess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 ^kNot in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles ^lwhich know not God:

6 ^mThat no man ⁿgo beyond and || defraud his brother ^o|| in ^pany matter: because that the Lord ^qis the avenger ^rof all such, as we also ^shave forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, ^tbut ^uunto ^vholiness.

8 ^wHe therefore that ^x|| despiseth, ^y|| despiseth not man, but God, ^zwho

^β hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love ^aye need not that I write unto you: for ^bye yourselves are taught of God ^cto love one another.

10 ^dAnd indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, ^ethat ye ^fincrease more and more:

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and ^gto do your own business, and ^hto work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 ⁱThat ye may walk ^jhonestly toward them that are without, and ^kthat ye may ^lhave lack || of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, ^aeven as ^bothers ^cwhich have no hope.

14 For ^dif we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so ^e|| them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with ^fhim.

15 For this we say unto you ^gby the word of the Lord, that ^hwe which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not ⁱprevent them which are asleep.

16 For ^jthe Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a ^kshout, with the voice of the archangel, and with ^lthe trump of God: ^mand the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 ⁿThen we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them ^oin the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so ^pshall we ever be with the Lord.

18 ^qWherefore ^r|| comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He proceedeth in the former description of Christ's coming to judgment, 16 and teacheth diverse precepts, 23 and so concludeth the epistle.

¹BUT of ^athe times and the seasons, brethren, ^bye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that ^cthe day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then ^asudden destruction cometh upon them, ^eas travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 ^fBut ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that ¹that day should overtake you as ^βa thief.

5 Ye are all ^gthe children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 ^hTherefore let us not sleep, as do ²others; but ¹let us watch and be sober.

7 For ^kthey that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken ¹are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, ^mputting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For ⁿGod hath not appointed us to wrath, ^obut to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

11 ^qWherefore ⁵|| comfort yourselves together, and ^eedify one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, ^rto know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

*THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Saint Paul certifieth them of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience: 11 and therewith useth divers reasons for the comforting of them in persecution, whereof the chiefest is taken from the righteous judgment of God.

PAUL, ^a and Silvanus, and ¹Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians ² in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

² Grace unto you, and peace, from God ^β our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³ ^a We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the ³ charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

⁴ So that ^c we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God ^f for your patience and ⁴ faith ^g in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

⁵ Which is ^h a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, ⁱ for which ye also suffer:

⁶ Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense ⁵ tribulation to them that ⁵ trouble you;

⁷ And to you who are troubled ⁱ rest with us, when ^m the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with ⁶ his mighty angels.

⁸ ⁷ In flaming fire ^{||} taking vengeance on them ^o that know not God, ⁸ and ^p that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ;

⁹ Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction ^q from the ¹⁰ presence of the Lord, and ^r from the glory of his power;

¹⁰ When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, ^t and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony ¹¹ among you was believed) in that day.

¹¹ Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would ^{||} count you worthy of ^{this} calling, and ¹² fulfil all the good pleasure of ^{his} goodness, and ^u the work of faith ¹³ with power:

¹² That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He willeth them to continue steadfast in the truth received, 3 sheweth that there shall be a departure from the faith, 9 and a discovery of antichrist, before the day of the Lord come. 15 And thereupon repeateth his former exhortation, and prayeth for them.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, ¹ by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, ² and ¹ by our gathering together unto him, ² That ye be not soon shaken ² in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter ³ as from us, as that the day of ^β Christ is ⁴ at hand.

⁴ Who opposeth and ^h exalteth himself ⁱ above ^j all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he ^β as God ^β sitteth in the ⁸ temple of God, ⁹ shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I ¹⁰ told you these things?

6 And now ye know what ¹¹ || withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For ¹² the mystery of ¹² iniquity doth ¹³ already work: ¹³ only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall ¹⁴ that Wicked be revealed, ¹ whom ¹⁵ the Lord shall consume ¹⁶ with the ¹⁵ spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy ¹⁶ with the ¹⁶ brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is ¹⁷ after the working of Satan with all ¹⁸ power and ¹⁹ signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all ¹⁹ deceivableness of unrighteousness ¹⁹ in ²⁰ them ²⁰ that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And ²¹ for this cause God ²¹ shall send them ²¹ strong delusion, ²² that they should believe ²² a lie:

12 That they all might be ²³ damned who believed not the truth, but ²⁴ had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But ²⁵ we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God ²⁶ hath ²⁷ from the beginning chosen you to salvation ²⁸ through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to ²⁹ the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, ³⁰ stand fast, and hold ³¹ the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

1 He craveth their prayers for himself, 3 testifieth what confidence he hath in them, 5 maketh request to God in their behalf, 6 giveth them divers precepts, especially to shun idleness, and ill company, 16 and last of all concludeth with prayer and salutation.

7 For yourselves know ^m how ye ought to follow us: ⁿ for ^o we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but ^p wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not ^q be chargeable to any of you:

9 ^r Not because we have not ^s power, but to make ^t ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, ^u that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some ^v which walk among you disorderly,

CHAPTER 1.

1 Timothy is put in mind of the charge which was given unto him by Paul at his going to Macedonia. 5 Of the right use and end of the law. 11 Of Saint Paul's calling to be an apostle, 20 and of Hymeneus and Alexander.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ ^a by the commandment ^β of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, ^c which is our hope;

2 Unto ^a Timothy, ^c my ¹ own son in the faith: ^f Grace, mercy, and peace, from God ^β our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, ^ν when I ² went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some ^a that they teach no other doctrine,

4 ^a Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, ^a which minister questions, rather than ^β godly edifying ^β which is in faith: ³ so do.

5 ^a Now ¹ the end of the ^a commandment is ^a charity ^ν out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some ⁷ || having swerved have turned aside unto ^ν vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; ^ν understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that ^β the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 ^a Knowing this, that ^β the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary ^a to ¹⁰ sound doctrine;

11 According to the ¹¹ glorious gospel of ^a the blessed God, ^a which was committed to my trust.

words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, ¹² rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But ^d shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will ¹³ eat as doth a || canker: of whom is ^e Hymenæus and Philetus;

18 Who ^f concerning the truth have erred, ^g saying that ^β the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless ¹⁴ h the foundation of God standeth || sure, having this ¹⁵ seal, The Lord ⁱ knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of ^β Christ depart from iniquity.

20 ^k But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; ^l and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 ^m If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and ¹⁶ meet for the master's use, and ⁿ prepared unto every good work.

22 ¹⁷ Flee also youthful lusts: but ^o follow righteousness, faith, ¹⁸ charity, peace, with them that ^p call on the Lord ^q out of a pure heart.

23 But ^r foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And ^s the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all ^t men, ^u apt to teach, ¹⁹ || patient,

25 ^v In meekness ²⁰ instructing those that oppose themselves; ^x if God peradventure will give them repentance ^y to the ²¹ acknowledging of the truth;

26 And ^z that they may ²² † recover themselves ² out of the snare of the devil, ²³ who are † taken captive by him at his will.

CHAPTER 3.

1 ^{He} adviseth him of the times to come, 6 describeb the enemies of the truth, 10 propoundeth unto him his own example, 16 and commendeth the holy scriptures.

THIS know also, that ^a in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be ^b lovers of their own selves, ^{1c} covetous, ^d boasters, ^e proud, ^{2f} blasphemers, ^g disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 ^h Without natural affection, ³ⁱ truce-breakers, || false accusers, ^k incontinent, fierce, ⁴ despisers of those that are good,

4 ^l Traitors, ⁵ heady, ⁶ highminded, ^m lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but ⁷ⁿ denying the power thereof: ^o from such turn away.

6 For ^p of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able ^q to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 ^r Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: ^s men of corrupt minds, ^{8t} || reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall ⁹ proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all ^u men, ^v as their's also was.

10 ^x But || thou hast fully known my ¹⁰ doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,

11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me ^y at Antioch, ^z at Iconium, ^a at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but ^b out of ^{them} all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and ^c all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

17 ¹ That the man of God may be perfect, ¹¹ ^a thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth him to do his duty with all care and diligence, & certifieth him of the nearness of his death, 9 willeth him to come speedily unto him, and to bring Marcus with him, and certifies other things which he wrote for, 14 warneth him to beware of Alexander the smith, 16 informeth him what had befallen him at his first answering, 19 and soon after he concludeth.

7 ^a I have fought ¹⁰ a good fight, I have finished ^a my course, I have kept the faith:

14 ^a Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: ^a the Lord ^a reward him according to his works:

16 At my first ¹⁵ answer no man stood with me, ^a but all ^a men forsook me: ^b I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

*THE EPISTLE OF PAUL

CHAPTER 1.

1 For what end Titus was left in Crete. 6 How they that are to be chosen ministers ought to be qualified. 11 The mouths of evil teachers to be stopped: 12 and what manner of men they be.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, ¹ according to the faith of God's elect, and ² ^a the acknowledging of the truth ^b which ³ is after godliness; ² ¶ ^c In hope of eternal life, which God, ^d that cannot lie, promised ^e before the world began;

³ ¶ But hath in ⁵ due times manifested his word through ⁶ preaching, ⁷ which ⁷ is committed unto me ^a according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To ¹ Titus, ^k mine ⁸ own son after ⁹ the common faith: ^m Grace, ^β mercy ^β, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest ¹⁰ set in order the things that are ¶ wanting, and ¹¹ ^a ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 ¶ If any be blameless, ⁷ the husband of one wife, ⁷ having ¹² faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For a ¹³ bishop must be blameless, as ^a the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, ⁷ not ¹⁴ given to wine, no striker, ^m not given to filthy lucre;

8 ¶ But a lover of hospitality, ¹⁵ a lover of ¶ good men ¹⁵, ¹⁶ sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 ¶ Holding fast ⁷ the faithful word ¶ as he hath been taught, that he may be able ^a by ¹⁷ sound doctrine both to exhort and to ¹⁸ convince the gainsayers.

10 For ^b there are many unruly and vain talkers and ^c deceivers, ^d specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, ⁷ for filthy lucre's sake.

12 ¶ One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, ¹⁹ slow bellies.

Or, overseer, R margin. (same word as 1 Tim. 3. In these Epistles, and in the New Test. generally, the names bishop (overseer) and presbyter (elder) are used interchangeably, according to El. Sc., following Jerome and Chrysostom). —¹⁴ Rather, quarrelsome over wine, R margin. or simply, quarrelsome, Ho., as 1 Tim. 3. 3. —¹⁵ V. 8. a lover of good, *Al. Lan. 13 This witness is true. ^h Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be ⁱ sound in the faith;

15 ^m Unto the pure all things are pure: but ⁿ unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Directions given unto Titus both for his doctrine and life. 9 Of the duty of servants, and in general of all Christians.

BUT speak thou the things which become ^{1a} sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be ² || sober, grave, ² temperate, ^b sound in faith, in ³ charity, in patience.

3 ^c The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh || holiness, not || false accusers, not ^d given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may ^e teach the young women to be || sober, ^d to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be ^f discreet, chaste, ^β keepers at home ^β, good, ^e obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God ⁷ be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be || sober minded.

7 ^g In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in ⁸ doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, ^β sincerity,

8 ⁱ Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; ^k that he that is of the contrary part ^l may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of ^β you.

9 ^m Exhort ^{9m} servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well ⁿ in all things; not || answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all

^β good fidelity; ^o that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For ^p the grace of God ^β || that bringeth salvation ^q hath appeared to all men,

12 ¹⁰ Teaching us ¹¹ that, denying ungodliness ^a and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present ¹² world;

13 ^r Looking for that blessed ^s hope, and ¹³ the glorious ^r appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

14 ^t Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself ^a ¹⁴ peculiar people, ^b zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and ^c exhort, and rebuke with all authority. ^d Let no man despise thee.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should touch, and not touch. 10 He is warned also to reject obstinate heretics: 12 which done, he appointeth him both time and place, wherein he should come unto him, and so conclude.

PUT them in mind ^a to be subject ^{1a} to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, ^b to be ready to every good work,

2 ^c To speak evil of no man, ^d to be no brawlers, but ^e gentle, shewing all ^f meekness unto all men.

3 For ^g we ourselves also were ² sometimes foolish, disobedient, ³ deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

of his ⁷ person, and ⁹ upholding all things by the word of his power, ^h when he had ^β by himself ^β purged ⁷ our ⁷ sins, ⁱ sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as ^k he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, ^l Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, ^m I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 || And ⁿ again, when he bringeth in ^o the ⁹ firstbegotten into ¹⁰ the world, he saith, ^p And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And ¹¹ of the angels he saith, ^q Who maketh his angels ¹² spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But ¹¹ unto the Son he saith, ^r Thy throne, O God, ^s is for ever and ever: ^β a sceptre of [†] righteousness ^s is the sceptre of ⁷ thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; ¹³ therefore God, ^t even thy God, ⁷ hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, ^u Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 ^v They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou ^β fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But ¹¹ to which of the angels said he at any time, ^w Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 ^x Are they not all ministering spirits, ¹⁴ sent forth to minister for them who ¹⁵ shall be ^y heirs of salvation?

CHAPTER 2.

1 We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, 5 and that because he vouchsafed to take our nature upon him, 14 as it was necessary.

THE more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should ^{1†} let them slip.

2 For if the word ^a spoken ² by angels ³ was ⁴ stedfast, and ^b every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 ^c How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; ^d which at the first began to be spoken ² by the Lord, and was ^{5e} confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 ^f God also ^g bearing them witness, ^h both with signs and wonders, and with divers ⁷ miracles, and ⁸ || ^h gifts of the Holy Ghost, ⁹ⁱ according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection ^{10k} the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, ^l What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him ¹¹ || a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, ^β and didst set him over the works of thy hands ^β:

8 ^m Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing ⁿ that is not put under him. But now ^o we see not yet all things put under him.

10 ⁹ For it became him, ⁹ for whom are all things, and ¹⁶ by whom are all things, ¹⁷ in bringing many sons unto glory, to make ¹ the ¹⁸ captain of their salvation ⁹ perfect through sufferings.

11 For ⁹ both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified ⁹ are all ¹⁹ of one: for which cause ² he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, ⁹ I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the ²⁰ church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, ⁶ I will put my trust in him. And again, ⁶ Behold I and the children ⁴ which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children ²¹ are partakers of flesh and blood, he ⁹ also himself likewise took part of the same; ¹ that through death he might ²² destroy him that ²³ had the ²⁴ power of death, that is, the devil;

(This reading, having been taken to imply that God might be separated from the human Jesus, is said by some Fathers to have been invented by the Nestorians; but it was already current in Origen's day.)

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him ⁴ to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be ⁴ a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 ⁴ For ²⁶ in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses, 7 therefore if we believe not in him, we shall be more worthy punishment than hardhearted Israel.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of ^{1a} the heavenly calling, consider ⁶ the Apostle and High Priest ² of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that ^{3†} appointed him, as also ⁴ Moses was faithful in all ⁴ his house.

3 For this man ⁵ was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as ⁴ he who ⁶ hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is ⁶ builded by ⁷ some man; but ⁶ he that ⁶ built all things is God.

10 For he that is entered into ¹⁵ his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man ¹⁶ fall ¹⁷ after the same example of ¹⁷ || unbelief.

12 For the word of God is ¹⁸ h quick, and ¹⁹ powerful, and ²⁰ sharper than any ²¹ k two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, ²⁰ and of the joints and marrow, and is ²¹ a discerner of the ²² thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 ²² Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked ²³ and ²⁴ opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have ²⁵ a great high priest, ²⁶ that is passed ²⁷ into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, ²⁸ let us hold fast our ²⁹ profession.

15 For ³⁰ we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with ³¹ the feeling of our infirmities; but ³² e was in all points tempted like as we are, ³³ yet without sin.

4 ² And no man taketh this ³ honour unto himself, but ⁴ he that is called of God, as ⁵ was Aaron.

5 ⁶ So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest: but he that said unto him, ⁷ Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, ⁸ Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, ⁹ when he had ¹⁰ offered up prayers and supplications ¹¹ with strong crying and tears unto him ¹² that was able to save him from death, and was ¹³ heard ¹⁴ in that he feared;

CHAPTER 6.

1 He exhorteth not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be steadfast, 12 diligent, and patient to wait upon God, 13 because God is most sure in his promise.

THEREFORE ^a leaving ¹ || the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us ² go on unto ³ perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance ^b from dead works,
and of faith toward God,

2 ⁴ ^b ^c Of ^b the doctrine of baptisms, ^d and of laying on of hands, ^e and of resurrection of the dead, ^f and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, ^g if God permit.

4 For ^h it is impossible ⁱ for those who ^j were ^k once enlightened, and have tasted of ^k the heavenly gift, and were made ^l partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted ^m the good word of God, and the powers of ⁿ the ^o world to come,

6 ¹⁰ If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; ¹¹ ^p seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put ^q him to an open shame.

7 For the ¹² earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them
¹³ || by whom it is dressed, ^o receiveth blessing from God:

8 ^p But ¹⁴ that which beareth thorns and ¹⁵ briars is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; ¹⁶ whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that ¹⁷ accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 ^a For ^r God is not unrighteous to forget ^s your work and ^t labour of ^u love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that ^v every one of you do shew the same diligence ^w to the ¹⁸ full assurance of ¹⁹ hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and ²⁰ patience ^y inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, ^z he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, ²¹ after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by ²² the greater: and ²³ ^a an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 ²⁴ Wherein God, ²⁵ willing more abundantly to shew unto ^b the heirs his counsel, ²⁷ [†] confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong ²⁸ consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope ^d set be-us entered, even Jesus, ^{30g} made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, 11 and so, far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order.

FOR this ^a Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the ¹ slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, [†] without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, ^b unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily ^c they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose ^{||} descent is not counted from them ² received tithes of Abraham, ^d and blessed ^e him that ³ had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, ^f of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, ⁴ payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 ^g If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people ⁵ received the law,) what further need was there that ⁶ another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, ⁷ and not be called after the order of Aaron?

VAR. REND.—³⁰ V. 20. Rather, having become, Al. Jc., so R.—CHAP. 7. ¹ V. 1. smiting, Del.; v. defeat, Al. Da. Del. Lu. Wo.—⁷ Strictly, and what need was there that he should be said to be not after the order of Aaron? Al. Del. Lu., so Bl. Wo., De W. nearly (and not be reckoned after . . . R).

VAR. READ.—CHAP. 7. V. 11. β So (rather, had received) D^c; hath received, SA B C D^e, Edel. R.

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken ⁸ pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man ⁹ gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that ^h our Lord ¹⁰ sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: ¹¹ for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth ¹² another priest.

16 Who ¹³ is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For ¹⁴ he testifieth, 'Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.'

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for ¹⁵ the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For ¹⁶ the law made nothing perfect, ¹¹ || but the bringing in of ^m a better hope did; by the which ⁿ we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath ¹³ he was made priest:

21 (For ¹⁶ those priests were made || without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said ¹⁷ unto him, ^o The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever ¹⁸ after the order of Melchisedec β.)

22 ¹⁸ By so much ^p was Jesus made a surety of a better ¹⁹ testament.

27 Who needeth not daily, as ²³ those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, ^t first for his own sins, ^u and then for the people's: for ^z this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh ^y men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, ^z who is ²⁴ † consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8.

1 By the eternal priesthood of Christ the Levitical priesthood of Aaron is abolished. 7 And the temporal covenant with the fathers, by the eternal covenant of the gospel.

NOW ¹ of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, ^a who ² is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister || of ³ ^b the sanctuary, and of ^c the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For ^d every high priest is ^e ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore ^e ^e it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 ^f For if ^f he were on earth, ^g he should not be a priest, seeing that || there are priests that offer ^g gifts according to the law:

6 But now ^h hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, ¹⁰ by how much also he is the mediator of a better || covenant, which ¹¹ was established upon better promises.

7 ⁱ For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for ¹² the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, ^k Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will ¹³ make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For ¹⁴ this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will ¹⁵ put my laws into their mind, and write them || in their hearts: and ¹⁶ I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And ¹⁷ they shall not teach every man his ¹⁸ neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, ¹⁹ and their sins ²⁰ and their iniquities ²¹ will I remember no more.

13 ²² In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which ²³ decayeth and waxeth old is ²⁴ ready to vanish away.

made; the ³first, ^cwherein ^dwas ^ethe ⁵candlestick, and ^cthe table, and the shewbread; which is called || the ⁶sanctuary.

3 ^fAnd after the second veil, the ²tabernacle which is called the ⁷Hol-iest of all;

4 Which had ⁸the golden ⁹censer, and ⁹the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein ⁴was ⁸the golden pot that had manna, and ⁴Aaron's rod that budded, and ⁶the tables of the covenant;

5 And ⁷over it the cherubims ¹⁰of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ¹¹ordained, ¹²the priests ¹²went always into the ³first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second ¹³went the high priest alone ¹⁴once every year, not without blood, ¹⁵which he ¹³offered for himself, and for the ¹¹errors of the people:

8 ¹⁶The Holy Ghost this signifying, that ¹⁶the way into ¹⁵the holiest of all ¹⁶was not yet made manifest, while as the ³first tabernacle ¹⁷was
yet standing:

9 ¹⁸Which ¹⁸was a ¹⁹figure for the time then present, ²⁰in which ²⁰were offered both gifts and sacrifices, ²¹that could not make him that did the service perfect, ²¹as pertaining to the conscience.

10 Which stood only in ²²meats and drinks, and ²³divers washings, ²⁴and carnal ²⁴ordinances, imposed on them until ²⁵the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come ²⁶an high priest ²⁷of good things ²⁸to come, ²⁹by ²⁹a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not ³⁰of this building;

12 Neither ³¹by the blood of goats and calves, but ³²by his own blood he entered in ³³once into the holy place, ³⁴having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if ³⁵the blood of bulls and of goats, and ³⁶the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more ³⁷shall the blood of Christ, ³⁸who through the eternal Spirit ³⁹offered himself without ⁴⁰spot to God, ⁴¹purge your conscience from ⁴²dead works ⁴³to serve the living God?

15 ⁴⁴And for this cause ⁴⁵he is the mediator of ⁴⁶the new ⁴⁷testament, ⁴⁸that ⁴⁹by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that ⁵⁰were under the first ⁵¹testament, ⁵²they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament ⁵³is, there must also of necessity ⁵⁴be the death of the testator.

17 For ⁵⁵a testament ⁵⁶is of force after men are dead: ⁵⁷otherwise ⁵⁸it is of no strength at all ⁵⁹while the testator liveth.

18 ⁶⁰Whereupon neither the first testament was ⁶¹dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, ⁶²he took the blood of ⁶³calves and of goats, ⁶⁴with water, and ⁶⁵scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people.

20 Saying, ^aThis is the blood of the ³⁵testament which God hath en-joined ³⁶unto you.

21 Moreover ^yhe sprinkled with ³⁷blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And ³⁸almost all things are by the law ³⁹purged with blood; and ^zwithout ⁴⁰shedding of blood ⁴¹is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that ^athe ⁴²patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For ^bChrist ⁴³is not entered into ⁴⁴the holy places made with hands, which are the ⁴⁵figures of ^cthe true; but into heaven itself, now ^dto appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as ^ethe high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but ^fnow ⁴⁶once ⁴⁷in the ⁴⁸end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by ⁴⁹the sacrifice of himself.

27 ^hAnd ⁴⁹as it is appointed unto men once to die, ⁱbut after this the judgment:

28 So ^kChrist was once ⁵⁰offered ⁵¹to bear the sins ^mof many; and unto them that ⁿlook for him shall he appear the second time ⁵¹without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The weakness of the law sacrifices. 10 The sacrifice of Christ's body once offered, 11 for ever hath taken away sins. 19 An exhortation to hold fast the faith, with patience and thanksgiving.

FOR the law having ^aa shadow ^bof ¹good things to come, and not the very image of the things, ^β can never with ²those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto ^dperfect.

2 For then ^{||}would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once ^βpurged should have had no more ^γconscience of sins.

3 ^eBut in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For ^fit is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, ^gSacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body ⁴|| hast thou prepared me:

6 In ⁵burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou ⁶hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, ⁷I come (in the ⁸volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 ⁹Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and ⁵burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered ¹⁰by the law;

9 Then ¹¹said he, Lo, ⁷I come to do thy will, ^βO God^β. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 ¹²By the which will we ¹³are sanctified ⁱthrough the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every ^βpriest standeth ^kdaily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, ^lwhich can never take away sins:

12 ^mBut this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins ¹⁴15 for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

CHAPTER 11.

1 What faith is. 6 Without faith we cannot please God. 7 The worthy fruits thereof in the fathers of old time.

NOW faith is ¹ the || substance of things hoped for, the ² evidence ^a of things not seen.

2 For ³ by it the elders ⁴ obtained a good report.

3 ⁵ Through faith we understand that ⁶ the ⁷ worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith ^d Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, ^β God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead ⁸ || yet speaketh.

5 By faith ^f Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he ⁹ had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith ^{it} is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith ^g Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, || moved with ¹⁰ fear, ^h prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by ¹¹ the which he condemned the world, and became heir of ⁱ the righteousness which is ¹² by faith.

8 By faith ^{β^k} Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as ⁱⁿ a strange country, ⁱ dwelling in ¹³ tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, ^m the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for ¹⁴ ⁿ a city which hath foundations, ^o whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also ^p Sara herself received strength ¹⁵ to conceive seed, and ^{β^q} was delivered of a child ^β when she was past age, because she judged him ^r faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and ^s him as good as dead, ^t so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died [†] in faith, ^u not having received the promises, but ^v having seen them afar off, ^β and were persuaded of them ^β, and ¹⁶ embraced them, and ^w confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things ^x declare plainly that they seek a ¹⁷ country.

15 And truly, if they ¹⁸ ^β had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But ¹⁹ now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed ^a to be called their God: for ^β he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith ^c Abraham, when he was tried, ²⁰ offered up Isaac: and great a cloud of witnesses, ^a let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which ² doth so easily beset us, and ^b let us run ^{3c} with patience the race that is set before us,

² Looking unto Jesus the ^d author and finisher of our faith; ^e who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and ^f is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

³ For ^g consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners ^h against himself, ⁱ lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

⁴ Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

⁵ And ^j ye have forgotten the ^k exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, ^l My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

⁶ For ^k whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

⁷ ^β If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for ^s what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

⁸ But if ye be without chastisement, ^m whereof all ⁹ are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

⁹ Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto ⁿ the Father of ¹⁰ spirits, and live?

¹⁰ For they verily for a few days chastened us ^o after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, ^p that we might be partakers of his holiness.

¹¹ Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous:

22 But ye are come ¹ unto mount Sion, ² and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, ³ and ² to ²⁷ an innumerable company of angels,

1 Divers admonitions, as to charity, 1 to honest life, 5 to avoid covetousness, 7 to regard God's preachers, 9 to take heed of strange doctrines, 10 to confess Christ, 16 to give alms, 17 to obey governors, 18 to pray for the apostle. 20 The conclusion.

LET ¹ brotherly love continue. 2 ² Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby ³ some have entertained angels unawares.

3 ⁴ Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 ⁵ Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: ⁶ but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 ⁷ Let your ⁸ conversation be without covetousness; and ⁹ be content with such things as ye have: for ¹⁰ he hath said, ¹¹ I will ¹² never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that ¹³ we may boldly say, ¹⁴ The Lord is my helper, and ¹⁵ I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 ¹⁶ Remember ¹⁷ them which ¹⁸ have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: ¹⁹ whose faith follow, considering the end of their ²⁰ conversation :

8 ²¹ Jesus Christ ²² the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 ²³ Be not ²⁴ carried about ²⁵ with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; ²⁶ not with meats, which ²⁷ have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 ²⁸ We have ²⁹ an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

CHAPTER 1.

1 We are to rejoice under the cross, 5 to ask patience of God, 13 and in our trials not to impute our weakness, or sins, unto him, 19 but rather to hearken to the word, to meditate in it, and to do thereafter. 26 Otherwise men may seem, but never be truly religious.

^a JAMES, ^b a ¹ servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, ^c to the twelve tribes ^d which are ² scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, ^e count it all joy ^f when ye fall into divers ³ temptations;

3 ^g Knowing this, that ⁴ the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, ⁵ wanting nothing.

5 ^{6 h} If any of you lack wisdom, ⁱ let him ask of God, that giveth to all men ⁷ liberally, and upbraideth not; and ^k it shall be given him.

6 ^l But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that ⁹ wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think ¹⁰ that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 ^m A double minded man is unstable in all his ways ¹⁰.

9 ¹¹ Let the brother ¹² of low degree || rejoice in ¹³ that he is exalted:

10 ¹⁴ But the rich, in that he is made low; because ^a as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with ^b a burning heat, but it ¹⁶ withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his days.

12 ^c Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for ¹⁷ when he is tried, he shall receive ^d the crown of life, ^e which ^f the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted ¹⁸ of God: for God ¹⁹ cannot be tempted with ¹⁰ evil, ²⁰ neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is ²¹ tempted, when he is drawn away of his own ²² lust, and enticed.

15 Then ^e when ²² lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is ²³ finished, ²⁴ bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren. 17 ^f Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of ²⁵ lights, ^g with whom is no variableness, neither ²⁶ shadow of turning.

18 ^h Of his own will ²⁷ begat he us with the word of truth, ²⁸ that we should be a kind of ⁱ firstfruits of his creatures.

19 ^j Wherefore, my beloved brethren, ^k let every man be swift to hear, ^l slow to speak, ^m slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore ⁿ lay apart all filthiness and ²² superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ²³ engrafted word, ^o which is able to save your souls.

22 But ^p be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For ^q if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding ³⁰ his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But ^r whoso looketh into ³¹ the perfect ^s law of liberty, and ³² continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of ³³ the ³³ work, ^t this man shall be blessed in his ³⁴ deed.

26 If any man ^u among you ³⁴ seem to be religious, and ^v bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before ^w God and the Father is this, ^x To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, ^y and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2.

1 It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor brethren: 13 rather we are to be brave, and meek: 14 and not to boast of faith where no deeds are, 17 which is but a dead faith, 19 the faith of devils, 21 not of Abraham, 25 and Rahab.

MY brethren, ¹ have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, ² the Lord of glory, ³ with ⁴ respect of persons.

³† assembly a man with a gold ring, in ⁴ goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in ⁵ vile raiment;

⁴ ⁷ Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and ⁸ are become judges of evil thoughts?

⁵ Hearken, my beloved brethren, ⁶ Hath not God chosen the poor ^β of this world ⁹ d rich in faith, and heirs of || the kingdom ⁶ which he hath promised to them that love him?

⁶ But ⁷ ye have ¹⁰ despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, ⁹ and ¹¹ draw you before the judgment seats?

⁷ Do not they blaspheme that ¹² worthy name ¹³ by the which ye are called?

⁸ If ye fulfil the ¹⁴ royal law according to the scripture, ⁸ Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

⁹ But ¹ if ye have respect to persons, ¹⁵ ye commit sin, ¹⁶ and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

¹⁰ For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, ¹⁷ he ¹⁷ is guilty of all.

¹² So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by ¹⁸ the law of liberty.

¹³ For ¹⁸ he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and ⁹ mercy ¹⁹ || rejoiceth against judgment.

¹⁴ ² What doth it profit, my brethren, ²⁰ though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can ²¹ faith save him?

¹⁵ ¹ If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

¹⁶ And ¹ one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

¹⁷ Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, ²² being [†] alone.

¹⁹ ²⁵ Thou believest that ^β there is one God; thou doest well: [†] the devils also believe, and tremble.

²⁰ But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith ²⁴ without works is ^β dead?

²² ²⁷ || Seest thou ² how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

²³ And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, ²⁷ Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called ²⁸ the Friend of God.

²⁴ Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

²⁵ Likewise also ²⁹ was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, ²⁸ when she had ²⁸ received the messengers, and ²⁹ had sent them out another way?

²⁶ For as the body ²⁴ without the || spirit is dead, so faith ²⁴ without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3.

MY brethren, ^a be not many ¹ masters, ^b knowing that we shall receive ² the ^{2c} greater || condemnation.

2 For ^{3c} in many things we ⁴ offend all. ^d If any man ⁵ offend not in word, ^e the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 ^f Behold, ^g we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey ^h us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever ⁱ the governor listeth.

5 Even so ^j the tongue is a little member, and ^k boasteth great things. ^l Behold, how great ^m || a ⁿ matter ^o a little fire kindleth!

6 And ^p the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: ^q so ^r ^s is the tongue among our members, that ^t it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the ^u ^v course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell ^w.

7 For every ^x kind of beasts, and of birds, and of ^y serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed ^z of ^{aa} mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an ^{ab} unruly evil, ^{ac} full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, ^m which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same ⁿ place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? ^o so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 ^p Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew ^q out of a good conversation ^r his works ^s with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have ^t bitter envying and ^u strife in your hearts, ^v glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 ^w This wisdom descendeth not from above, but ^x is earthly, ^y sensual, devilish.

16 For ^z where envying and ^{aa} strife is, there is ^{ab} confusion and every evil work.

17 But ^{ac} the wisdom that is from above is ^{ad} first pure, then peaceable, ^{ae} gentle, and easy to be ^{af} intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, ^{ag} without partiality, ^{ah} and without hypocrisy.

18 ^{ai} And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace ^{aj} of them that make peace.

CHAPTER 4.

1 We are to strive against covetousness, 4 intemperance, 5 pride, 11 detraction, and rash judgment of others: 13 and not to be confident in the good success of worldly business, but mindful ever of the uncertainty of this life, to commit ourselves and all our affairs to God's providence.

3 ^b Ye ask, and receive not, ^c because ye ask amiss, that ye may ^d consume it ^e upon your ^f lusts.

4 ^g ^h Ye adulterers and adulteresses ⁱ, know ye not ^j that ^k the friendship of the world is enmity with God? ^l whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world ^m is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture ⁿ saith in vain, ^o The spirit ^p that dwelleth in us lusteth ^q to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace ^r. Wherefore ^s he saith, ^t God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. ^u Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 ^v Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. ^w Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and ^x purify your hearts, ye ^y double minded.

9 ^z Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 ^a Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 ^b Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, ^c and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 ^d There is one lawgiver ^e, who is able to save and to destroy: ^f who art thou that judgest another?

13 ^g Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not ^h what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? ⁱ ^j It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, ^k and then vanisheth away.

15 ^l For that ye ought to say, ^m If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye ⁿ rejoice in your boastings: ^o all such ^p rejoicing is evil.

17 ^q Therefore ^r to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Wicked rich men are to fear God's vengeance.

7 We ought to be patient in afflictions, after the example of the prophets, and Job: 12 to forbear swearing, 13 to pray in adversity, to sing in prosperity: 16 to acknowledge mutually our several faults, to pray one for another, 19 and to reduce a straying brother to the truth.

GO ^a to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is ^b cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. ^c Ye have heaped treasure together ^d for the last days.

4 Behold, ^e the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which ^f is of you ^g kept back by fraud, crieth: and ^h the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

5 ⁱ Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as ^j in a day of slaughter.

6 ^k Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 ^l Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and

6 ° Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now ° for a season, if need be, ° ye ° are in heaviness through manifold ° temptations :

7 That ° the ° trial of your faith, being much more precious ° than of gold that perisheth, though ° it be tried with fire, ° might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ :

8 ° Whom having not seen, ye love ; ° in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory :

9 Receiving ° the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 ° Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you :

11 Searching ° what, or what manner of time ° the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand ° the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 ° Unto whom it was revealed, that ° not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things; which ° are now reported unto you by them that ° have ° preached the gospel unto you ° with ° the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven ; ° which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore ° gird up the loins of your mind, ° be sober, and hope ° to the end for the grace that ° is to be brought unto you ° at the revelation of Jesus Christ ;

14 As ° obedient children, ° not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts ° in your ignorance :

15 ° But ° as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of ° conversation ;

16 Because it is written, ° Be ye holy ; for I am holy.

17 And if ye ° call on the Father, ° who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, ° pass the time of your ° sojourning here in fear :

18 Forasmuch as ye know ° that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain ° conversation ° received by tradition from your fathers ;

19 But ° with the precious blood of Christ, ° as of a lamb without blemish and without spot ° :

20 ° Who verily was ° foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest ° in ° these last times for you,

21 Who by him do believe in God, ° that raised him up from the dead, and ° gave him glory ; ° that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye ° have purified your souls in obeying the truth ° through the Spirit ° unto unfeigned ° love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a ° pure ° heart fervently :

23 ° Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, ° by the word of God, ° which liveth and abideth ° for ever °.

24 ¶ For ° all flesh is as grass, and all ° the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away :

25 ° But the word of the Lord ° endureth for ever. ° And this is ° the word which by the gospel ° is preached unto you.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He dehortheth them from the breach of charity :
4 shewing that Christ is the foundation whereupon they are built. 11 He beseecheth them also to abstain from fleshly lusts, 13 to be obedient to magistrates, 18 and teacheth servants how to obey their masters, 20 patiently suffering for well doing, after the example of Christ.

⁶ ^β Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, ^l Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious : and he that believeth on ⁵ him shall not be confounded.

⁷ ^m Unto you therefore which be-

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you

¹⁵ For so is the will of God, that

CHAPTER 3.

1 He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands to each other, 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to suffer persecution. 19 He declareth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world.

LIKEWISE, ^a ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, ¹ if any obey not the word, ^b they also may without the word ^c be won by the ² conversation of the wives;

³ ^e Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

⁴ But let it be ^f the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, ^g calling him lord: whose ^h daughters ye ³ are, ⁱ as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

⁷ ^k Likewise, ye husbands, ⁵ dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, ⁱ as unto the weaker vessel⁵, and as β being heirs together of the grace of life; ^k that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, ^l be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another,

^m || love as brethren, ⁿ be pitiful, be β courteous:

9 ^o Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, ^p that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For ^q he that will love life, and see good days, ^r let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him ^s eschew evil, and do good; ^t let him seek peace, and ^u ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are ^v over the righteous, ^w and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is ^x against them that do evil.

13 ^y And who is he that will harm you, if ye β be followers of that which is good?

14 ^z But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and ^a be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify ^b the Lord β God in your hearts: and ^c be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you ^d with meekness and || fear:

16 ^e Having a good conscience; ^f that, ^g whereas β they speak evil of you, as of evildoers^g, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good ^h conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also β hath ⁱ once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, ^j being put to death ^k in the flesh, but ^l quickened ¹⁰ by the Spirit:

19 By which ^m also he went and ⁿ preached unto the spirits ⁱ in prison;

the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and ^r is on the right hand of God; ^s angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ, and the consideration of the general end that now approacheth: 12 and comforteth them against persecution.

FORASMUCH then ^a as Christ hath suffered ^β for us ^β in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with ¹ the same mind: for ^b he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased ^γ from sin;

2 ^c That ² he no longer ^d should live the rest of ² his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, ^e but to the will of God.

3 ^f For the time past of ^{our} life may suffice us ^g to have wrought the ^β will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, ^h banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with ^{them} to the same ⁱ excess of riot, ^j speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready ^k to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause ^k was ^l the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

*THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL

PETER.

CHAPTER 1.

¹ Confirming them in hope of the increase of God's graces, 5 he exhorteth them, by faith, and good works, to make their calling sure: 12 whereof he is careful to remember them, knowing that his death is at hand: 16 and warneth them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Son of God, by the eyewitness of the apostles beholding his majesty, and by the testimony of the Father, and the prophets.

^β || SIMON Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained ^a like precious faith with us ¹ through the righteousness ^{2†} of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

² ^b Grace and peace be multiplied unto you ³ through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

³ ⁴ According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, ^c through the knowledge of him ^d that hath called us ^β || to glory and virtue:

⁴ ^e Whereby ⁵ are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might ⁶ be partakers of ⁷ the divine nature, ^g having escaped the corruption that is in the world ⁸ through lust.

⁵ ^β ⁹ And beside this, ^h giving all diligence, ¹⁰ add to your faith virtue; and ¹¹ to virtue ⁱ knowledge;

⁶ And ¹¹ to knowledge ¹² temperance; and ¹¹ to temperance patience; and ¹¹ to patience godliness;

⁷ And ¹¹ to godliness brotherly kindness; and ¹¹ ^k to brotherly kindness ¹³ charity.

⁸ For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be [†] barren ^l nor unfruitful ¹⁴ in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁹ ¹⁵ But he that lacketh these things ^m is blind, ¹⁶ and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was ⁿ purged from his old sins.

¹⁰ Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence ^β ^o to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ^p ye shall never ¹⁷ fall:

¹¹ For so an entrance shall be ¹⁸ ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

¹² Wherefore ^β ^q I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, ^r though ye know them, and be established in the ¹⁹ present truth.

¹³ Yea, I think it meet, ^s as long as I am in this tabernacle, ^t to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

¹⁴ ^u Knowing that ²⁰ shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as ²¹ our Lord Jesus Christ ²¹ hath shewed me.

¹⁵ Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

¹⁶ For we have not followed ^v cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but ^w were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

¹⁷ For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, ^x This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

¹⁸ And this voice ²² which came

1 He foretelleth them of false teachers, shewing the impiety and punishment both of them and their followers: 7 from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom: 10 and more fully describeth the manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers, whereby they may be the better known, and avoided.

1 He assureth them of the certainty of Christ's coming to judgment, against those scoundrels who despise and so it: & warning the godly, for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 He describeth also the manner how the world shall be destroyed: 11 exhorting them, from the expectation thereof, to all holiness of life: 15 and again, to think the patience of God to tend to their salvation, as Paul wrote to them in his epistles.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which ^αI stir up your ¹pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, ^βand of the commandment ^βof us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

5 For this they ^ςwillingly are ignorant of, that ^ςby the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth ⁴†^ρstanding out of the water and in the water:

7 But ^ιthe heavens and the earth, which are now, ^βby the same word are ^εkept in store, reserved unto ^κfire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

*THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL

CHAPTER 1.

1 He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life, by a communion with God: 5 to which we must adjoin holiness of life, to testify the truth of that our communion and profession of faith, as also to assure us of the forgiveness of our sins by Christ's death.

THAT ^a which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, ^b which we have looked upon, and ^c our hands have handled, of the ¹ Word of life;

2 (2 For ^d the life ^e was manifested, and we have seen it, ^f and bear witness, ^g and shew unto you that eternal life, ^h which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto ^β you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly ^k our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we ^β unto you ^β, that ^r your joy may be ³ full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that ^a God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in ^d darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have ⁵ fellowship one with another, and ^r the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanse us from all sin.

8 ^a If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, ^c and the truth is not in us.

9 ^a If we confess our sins, he is faithful and ^b just to forgive us our sins, and to ^c cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He comforteth them against the sins of infirmity.
3 Rightly to have God is to keep his commandments, to love our brethren, and not to love the world. 18 We must beware of seducers: 20 from whose deceits the gaily are safe, preserved by perseverance in faith, and holiness of life.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, ^a we have an ^b advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And ^b he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but ^c also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 ^a He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, ^c is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But ^d whoso keepeth his word, ^e in him verily is the love of God perfected: ^f hereby know we that we are in him.

6 ^a He that saith he abideth in him ^b ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 ^b Brethren, ^c I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment ^d which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard ^e from the beginning.

8 Again, ^a a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: ^b because the darkness ^c is past, and ^d the true light ^e now shineth.

9 ^a He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in ^b darkness even until now.

10 ^a He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and ^b there is none ^c occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and ^c walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, ^a little children, because ^b your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him ^a that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. ^b I write unto you, ^c little children, because ye ^d have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye ^d have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ^e ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome ^f the wicked one.

15 ^a Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. ^b If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, ^b and the lust of the eyes, and the ^c pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And ^c the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 ^a Little children, ^b it is the last ^c time: and as ye have heard that ^d antichrist ^e shall come, ^f even now ^g are there many antichrists; whereby we know ^h that it is the last ⁱ time.

19 ^a They went out from us, but they were not of us: for ^b if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, ^c that they might be made manifest that ^d they were not all of us.

20 But ^a ye have an unction ^b from the Holy One, and ^c ye ^d know all things.

22 ^p Who is ¹⁶ a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? ¹⁷ He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 ^q Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: ^β [but] ^r he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also ^β.

24 Let that ^β therefore ^β ¹⁸ abide in ¹⁹ you, ^s which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall ¹⁸ remain in you, ^t ye also shall ¹⁸ continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 ^u And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you ^z concerning them that seduce you.

27 ^y But ^y the anointing which ye ²¹ have received of him abideth in you, and ^z ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing ^a teacheth you of all things, ²² and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ^β ye shall abide in ^{||} him.

28 And now, ²³ little children, abide in him; that, ^β when he shall appear, we may have confidence, ^c and not ²⁴ be ashamed before him at his coming.

2 Beloved, ^c now are we ² the sons of God, and ^d it ³ doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, ^e when he shall appear, ^e we shall be like him; for ^f we shall see him as he is.

from death unto life, because we love the brethren. ^c He that loveth not ^β his brother ^β abideth in death.

15 ^a Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that ^a no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 ^f Hereby ^β perceive we the love of God ^β, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But ^g whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, ^h how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, ⁱ let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby ^β we know ^k that we are of the truth, and ^l shall [†] assure our hearts before him.

20 ^l For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things ^l.

21 ^m Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, ⁿ then have we confidence toward God.

22 And ^o whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, ^p and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 ^q And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, ^r and love one another, ^s as he gave us commandment.

24 And ^t he that keepeth his commandments ^u dwelleth in him, and he in him. And ^v hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he ^w hath given us.

CHAPTER 4.

1 ^{He warneth them not to believe all teachers, who boast of the Spirit, but to try them by the rules of the catholic faith: 7 and by many reasons sheweth to brotherly love.}

BELOVED, ^a believe not every spirit, but ^b try the spirits whether they are of God: because ^c many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby ¹ know ye the Spirit of God: ^d Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And ^e every spirit that ^β confesseth not ^β ^γ that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that ^{spirit} of ² antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it ^δ should come; and ^ε even now already is it in the world.

4 ^ζ Ye are of God, ^η little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than ^θ he that is in the world.

5 ⁱ They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and ^k the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: ^l he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we ^m the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 ⁿ Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is ^o born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not ^o knoweth not God; for ^p God is love.

9 ^q In this ^r was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God ^s sent his only begotten Son into the world, ^t that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, ^u not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son ^v to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, ^w if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 ^x No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and ^y his love is perfected in us.

13 ^z Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And ^a we have seen and do testify that ^b the Father ^c sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 ^d Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath ^e to us.

1 He exhorteth a certain honorable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief, & test they be the carriers of their former profession: 10 and to have nothing to do with tho e seducers that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesus.

THE elder unto ¹ the elect lady and her children, ^a whom I love ² in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known ^b the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

5 And now I beseech thee, ¹ lady, ^f not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, ⁹ that we love one another.

6 And ^a this is love, that we walk

7 For ^k many deceivers ^β are entered into the world, ⁵ [†] who confess not ⁶ that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. ^m This is ⁷ a deceiver and an antichrist.

9 ^p Whosoever ^β transgresseth, and abideth not in the ⁸ doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the ⁸ doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

He exhorteth them to be constant in the profession of the faith. & False teachers are crept in to seduce them: for whose damnable doctrine and manners horrible punishment is prepared: 20 whereas the godly, by the assistance of the Holy Spirit, and prayers to God, may persevere, and grow in grace, and keep themselves, and recover others out of the snares of those deceivers.

JUDE, ¹the servant of Jesus Christ, and ^abrother of James, to them that ^βare sanctified ²by God the Father, and ^βpreserved ³in Jesus Christ, and ^ccalled:

2 Mercy unto you, and ^dpeace, and love, be multiplied.

11 ^uHe that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of ^uthe second death.

¹⁵ death; and all the churches shall know that ^o I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and ^p I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

²⁴ But unto you I say, ^q and ^r unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, ¹⁶ as they speak; ¹ I will put upon you none other burden.

²⁵ But ^t that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

²⁶ And he that overcometh, and keepeth ^u my works unto the end, ^v to him will I give power over the ¹⁷ nations:

²⁷ ^w And he shall ¹⁸ rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

²⁸ And I will give him ^x the morning star.

²⁹ ^y He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 3.

² The angel of the church of Sardis is reproved, ³ exhorted to repent, and threatened if he do not repent. ⁸ The angel of the church of Philadelphia ¹⁰ is approved for his diligence and patience. ¹⁵ The angel of Laodicea rebuked, for being neither hot nor cold, ¹⁹ and admonished to be more zealous. ²⁰ Christ standeth at the door and knocketh.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write: These things saith he ^a that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; ^b I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, ^c and art dead. ² Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I ^β have not found thy works perfect before God.

³ ^d Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and ^e repent. ^f If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

⁴ Thou hast ^g a few names even in Sardis which have not ^h defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me ⁱ in white: for they are worthy.

⁵ He that overcometh ^β, ^k the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not ^l blot out his name out of the ^m book of life, but ⁿ I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

⁶ ^o He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

⁸ ^u I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee ^x an open door, and no man can shut it: ² for ³ thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

⁹ Behold, I will make ^y them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, ^z I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

¹⁰ Because thou hast kept ⁴ the word of my patience, ^a I also will keep thee from the hour of ⁵ temptation, which shall come upon ^b all the world, to ⁵ try them that dwell ^c upon the earth.

¹¹ Behold, ^d I come quickly: ^e hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take ^f thy crown.

¹² Him that overcometh will I make ^g a pillar in the ⁶ temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and ^h I will write ⁷ upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is ⁱ new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: ^k and I will write upon him my new name.

¹³ ^l He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

¹⁴ And unto the angel of the church ^{||} of the Laodiceans write: ^m These things saith the ⁿ Amen, ^o the faithful and ^p true witness, ^q the beginning of the creation of God;

15 ^pI know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, ^qI am ¹⁰rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art ¹¹wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee ^rto buy of me gold ¹²tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and ^swhite raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and ^βanoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

CHAPTER 4.

2 John seeth the throne of God in heaven. 4 The four and twenty elders. 6 The four beasts full of eyes before and behind. 10 The elders lay down their crowns, and worship him that sat on the throne.

A¹FTER this I looked, and, behold, ^aa door was opened in heaven: and ^athe first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; ^βwhich said, ^bCome up hither, ^cand I will shew thee things ²which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately ^dI was ²in the spirit: and, behold, ^ea throne was set in heaven, and ^{one} ³sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: ^fand there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 ^gAnd round about the throne were four and twenty ⁴seats: and upon the ⁴seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, ^hclothed in white raiment; ⁱand they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne ⁵proceeded ^klightnings and thunderings and ⁶voices: ¹and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are ^mthe seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was ^βa sea of glass like unto crystal: ^oand in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four ⁷beasts full of eyes before ²and behind.

7 ^qAnd the first ⁷beast was like a lion, and the second ⁷beast like a calf, and the third ⁷beast had a face as a man, and the fourth ⁷beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four ⁷beasts had each of them ⁸six wings about him; and they were full of eyes ⁹within: and [†]they rest not day and night, saying, [†]Holy, holy, holy, ^uLord God Almighty, ²which was, and is, and ¹⁰is to come.

9 And when those ⁷beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that ¹¹sat on the throne, ^vwho liveth for ever and ever,

10 ²The four and twenty elders ¹²fall down before him that ¹¹sat on the throne, ^aand ^βworship him that liveth for ever and ever, ^band ^γcast their crowns before the throne, saying,

CHAPTER 5.

1 The book sealed with seven seals: 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open. 12 Therefore the elders praise him, 9 and confess that he redeemed them with his blood.

AND I saw in the right hand of ^a him that sat on the throne ^a a book written within and on the back-side, ^b sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man ^c in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, ^d the Lion of the tribe of Juda, ^e the Root of David, ^f hath prevailed to open the book, ^γ and ^β to loose ^β the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, ^β and, lo ^β, ^z in the midst of the throne and of the four ³ beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood ^a a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and ^b seven eyes, which are ⁱ the ^γ seven ^γ Spirits of God sent forth unto all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand ^k of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, ^l the four ³ beasts and four ^{and} twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them ^m harps, and golden ⁿ vials full of ^o odours, ⁿ which are the prayers of saints.

9 And ^a they sung a new song, saying, ^p Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: ^a for thou wast slain, and ^q hast redeemed ^β us ^β to God by thy blood ^r out of every ⁷ kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 ^t And hast made ^β us unto our God ^γ kings and priests: and ^δ we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard ^β the voice of many angels ^u round about the throne and the ³ beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ⁸ ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, ^v Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And ² every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, ² a Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, ^{be} unto him ^u that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 ^c And the four ³ beasts said, Amen. And the four ^{and} twenty elders fell down and worshipped ^β him ^d that liveth for ever and ever ^β.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The opening of the seals in order, and what followed thereupon, containing a prophecy to the end of the world.

AND ^a I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, ^b one of the four ¹ beasts saying, Come ^β and see ^β.

2 And I saw, and behold ^c a white horse: ^d and he that sat on him had a bow; ^e and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, ^f I heard the second ¹ beast say, Come ^β and see ^β.

4 ^g And there went out another horse ^{that was} red: and ^{power} was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, ^a I heard the third ¹ beast say, Come ^β and see ^β. And I beheld, and lo ^a a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard ^β a voice in the midst of the four ¹ beasts say, || A ² measure of wheat for a ³ penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and ^k see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, ¹ I heard the voice of the fourth ¹ beast say, Come ^β and see ^β.

8 ^m And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and ⁴ Hell followed with him. And power was given || unto them over the fourth part of the earth, ⁿ to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with ⁵ death, ^p and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under ^q the altar ^r the souls of them that were slain ^s for the word of God, and for ^t the testimony which they ⁶ held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O ⁷ Lord, ^u holy and true, ^v dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?"

11 And ^z white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, ^a that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, ^β should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, ^b and, lo, there was a great ⁸ earthquake; and ^c the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and ^β the moon became as blood;

13 ^d And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her || untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 ^e And the heaven ⁹ departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and ^f every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the ¹⁰ great men, and the rich men, and the ¹¹ chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, ^g hid themselves in the ¹² dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 ^h And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 ⁱ For the great day of ^β his wrath is come; ^k and who shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER 7.

3 An angel sealeth the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number. 9 Of all other nations an innumerable multitude, which stand before the throne, clad in white robes, and palms in their hands. 14 Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, ^a holding the four winds of the earth, ^b that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, ^c Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have ^d sealed the servants of our God ^e in their foreheads.

4 ^f And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed ^g an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

5 And if any man m will hurt them, n fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: o and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These p have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and q have power over r waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

15 And φ the seventh angel sounded; χ and there were great voices in heaven, saying, ψ The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; ω and he shall reign for ever and ever.

2 And I saw as it were ^aa sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, ^fand over his image, ^gand over his mark ^hand over the number of his mark ^h, and over the number of his name, stand ²on the sea of glass, ^ghaving ³the harps of God.

3 And they sing ^hthe song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, ⁱ'Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; ^kjust and true are thy ways, thou King of ^lsaints.

4 ^l'Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? ^pfor thou only art holy: for ^mall nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy ^qjudgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, ⁿthe temple of ^othe tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 ^oAnd the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, ^pclothed in pure and ^qwhite ^hlinen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 ^rAnd one of the four ⁷beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden ^svials full of the wrath of God, ^twho liveth for ever and ever.

8 And ^uthe temple was filled with smoke ^vfrom the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying ^ato the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the ^bvials ^cof the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial ^dupon the earth; and ^{2d}there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men ^ewhich had the mark of the beast, and ^fupon them ^fwhich worshipped his image.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for ^mthe marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And ⁿto her was granted that she should ⁷be arrayed in fine linen, clean and ⁸|| white: ^ofor the fine linen is the ⁹righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, ^pBlessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, ^qThese are ¹⁰the true sayings of God. 10 And ^rI fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, ^sSee thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and ¹¹of thy brethren ^tthat have the ¹²testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 ^uAnd I saw heaven opened, and behold ^aa white horse; and he that sat upon him ^βwas called ^vFaithful and True, and ^zin righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 ^aHis eyes ¹³were ^βas ^βa flame of fire, ^band on his head ¹³were many crowns; ^cand he ¹³had a name written, that ¹⁴no man knew, but he himself.

14 ^fAnd the armies which ¹⁶were in heaven followed him upon white horses, ^gclothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And ^hout of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and ¹⁷i he shall

16 And ^lhe hath on his vesture ¹⁹and on his thigh a name written, ^mKING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying ⁿto all the fowls that fly in ²⁰the midst of heaven, ^oCome and gather yourselves together unto ^βthe supper of the great God;

18 ^pThat ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 ^qAnd I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and ^βtheir armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 ^rAnd the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought ²¹miracles before him, with which he deceived them that ²²had received the mark of the beast, and ^sthem that worshipped his image.

^tThese both were cast alive into a lake of fire ^uburning with brimstone.

4 And I saw ^f thrones, and they sat upon them, and ^g judgment was given unto them: and I ^h saw ^h the souls of them that were beheaded for the ² witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and ⁱ which had not worshipped the beast, ^k neither his image, neither had received ^{his} mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they ³ lived and ^l reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such ^m the second death hath no ⁿ power, but they shall be ⁿ priests of God and of Christ, ^o and shall reign with him a thousand years.

and had ^a twelve gates, β and at the gates twelve angels β, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 ^a On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve ^b foundations, and ^b in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me
^c had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, ¹² that is, of the angel.

18 And the ¹³ building of the wall of it was of ¹⁴ jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto ¹⁵ clear glass.

19 ^d And the foundations of the wall of the city were ¹⁶ garnished with all manner of precious stones.

The first foundation was ¹⁴ jasper;
the second, ¹⁷ sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite;
the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a toppaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a ¹⁸ jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: ^e and the street of the city was pure gold, ¹⁹ as it were transparent glass.

22 ^f And I saw no temple therein:
for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 ^g And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the ²⁰ light thereof.

24 ^h And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it:
and the kings of the earth do bring their glory ^y and honour ^y into it.

be shut at all by day: for ^k there shall be no night there.

26 ^l And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

enter into it any thing β that defileth, neither ^y whatsoever worketh

they which are written in the Lamb's crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb¹.

2^b In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, *was*¹ there^{2c} the tree of life, which bare twelve³ manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit⁴ every month: and the leaves of the tree were^d for the healing of the nations.

3 And^e there shall be no more⁵ curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And^g they shall see his face; and^h his name shall be in their foreheads.

5ⁱ And there shall be no night^β there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for^k the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, ^mThese sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of^β the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7^o Behold, I come quickly: ^pblessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, ^qI fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, ^rSee thou do it not: for I am⁶ thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10^s And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: ^tfor the time is at hand.

11^u He that is unjust, let him⁷ be unjust⁸ still: and he which is filthy, let him^β be filthy^β still: and he that is righteous, let him^v be righteous⁸ still: and he that is holy, let him⁹ be holy⁸ still.

12^w And, behold, I come quickly; and^w my reward is with me, ²to give every man according as his work shall be.

13^a I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14^b Blessed are they^β that do his commandments^β, that they may have¹⁰ right^c to the tree of life, ^dand may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For^{11e} without are^f dogs, and¹² sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and¹³ maketh a lie.

16^g I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things^β in the churches. ^hI am the root and the offspring of David, andⁱ the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and^k the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. ^lAnd let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18^β For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, ^mIf any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, ⁿGod shall take away his part^{||} out of^β the book of life, and out of^o the holy city, ^vand from the things^v which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith, ^pSurely I come quickly. ^qAmen. ^βEven so^β, come, Lord Jesus.

21^β The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.^β

LIST OF BIBLICAL NAMES,

WITH FIGURES AND LETTERS INDICATING THE SITUATION OF THE PLACES ON THE MAPS.

NOTE.—The first reference figure in each case represents the number of the map; thus, Antioch (in Syria) appears on the first map in the space 121 F, and on the sixth map in the corresponding space, 621 F.

The names of places at present unidentified, also classical and modern names, are omitted from the Index, and where there are several places bearing the same name, but only one of these is mentioned in Scripture, the reference is given to the latter only, thus Neapolis appears on the maps in four different situations, viz., 419 M, 422 L, 605 C, 610 C; but it will be found in the Index only under the reference 610 C.
